REV. JOHN WILLIAM INGLE

John W. Ingle, who died in Shelby Hospital, July 21, 1934, was born at Tryon, Georgia, January 26, 1872.

He spent his early life on the farm, later entered the textile work until he took training at Rutherford and Weaver Colleges.

He was converted and joined the Methodist Church at Henrietta, N. C., when 16 years old and was a zealous Christian thereafter.

He was licensed to preach in 1897 and often preached for pastors and assisted them in revival work. He supplied the Maiden charge in 1900 and, joining this Conference that fall, was returned to that charge for 1901.

He was ordained deacon in 1902 by Bishop A. Coke Smith, and elder in 1904 by Bishop Duncan.

For thirty years this faithful itinerant served the church in the following charges: Maiden, 1900-01; Cherryville, 1902-03; West End-Gastonia, 1904; Polkville, 1905-06; Uwharrie, 1907-08, Walnut Street, Greensboro, 1909-10; Lilesville, 1911-12; Bethel, Asheville, 1913-14; Linwood, 1915-17; Murphy, 1918-19; Spray, 1920; Stony Point, 1921-22; Shelby, Lafayette Street, 1923-24; Polkton, 1925-27; North Monroe, 1928; Erlanger, 1929; and Stoneville, 1930. At the close of that year his health was so seriously impaired that he was granted the superannuate relation. Brother Ingle never recovered, but with courage and resignation yielded to the Father's will.

As a pastor he possessed an understanding heart and was always able to enter into the joys and sorrows of those he served. Humility, the rarest of Christian graces, he possessed in a very marked degree. His citizenship in every community where he lived was a powerful asset for Christ and His church. His face was set like a flint to accomplish God's purpose in his life.

How cheerfully and efficiently he served!

His preaching was strong, thoughtful and edifying. His constant aim was to nurture believers and to save the lost.

There was no place for compromise in his program. His friends knew where to find him on all ethical questions. He learned through the bleachery of the years to keep his feet firmly fixed on the solid rock, and was able therefore to lead his people into blessed experiences. He sought always to make full proof of his ministry and neglected no interest of the kingdom as a preacher and pastor.

Brother Ingle was married January 11, 1891, to Miss Martha Ann Cooper of Ellenboro, N. C., who, with the three children, survives.

Death held no terrors for him. He calmly and serenely passed on to others the sword he had so faithfully wielded, untarnished and laid down his commission without a stain upon it.

In the presence of a large group of his ministerial brethren and many other friends the funeral was conducted from Central Church, Shelby, by his pastor, Dr. E. K. McLarty, assisted by his presiding elder, Rev. J. S. Hiatt, and others, after which the body was laid to rest at Oak Grove Church in Rutherford County, N. C.

"Well done, good and faithful servant;
Enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

JOHN W. MOORE.

REV. JOHN FRANKLIN KIRK

John Franklin Kirk, the son of William Alexander and Hannah Shaver Kirk, was born in Rowan County, N. C., February 13, 1873. He gave his life to God during a revival at old Zion Church in Rowan County in 1886. In the following year he joined the church under the ministry of Dr. J. C. Rowe. He was married on June 28, 1899, to Miss Ida Ross, of Albemarle, who died January 28, 1925. On June 8, 1926, he married Miss Agnes Ellinwood, of Greensboro, who bound her life and ministry with his until he was called home in the early hours of the morning, September 20, 1934.

After studying in Albemarle High School he went to Trinity College, now Duke University. These were the beginnings of life long participation in the educational interests of his church and state. Upon returning from Trinity College in 1895 he was made principal of Albemarle High School. Two years later he became headmaster of Old Trinity High School. From 1899 to 1902 he was a bookkeeper with the Efrid Manufacturing Company in Albemarle. In 1902 he joined the Western North Carolina Conference in which he was an active member until his death thirty-two years later.

He served the following appointments: Summerfield, 1902-04; Grace, Winston-Salem, 1905; Mocksville, 1906-08; Mount Airy, 1909-10; Field Secretary, Children's Home, Winston-Salem, 1911; Broad Street, Statesville, 1912-15; presiding elder, Shelby District, 1916-18; Salisbury District, 1919-20; First Church, Salisbury, 1921-23; West Market Street Church, Greensboro, 1924-25; presiding elder, Asheville District, 1926-28; Main Street Church, Thomasville, 1929; Executive Secretary, Board of Christian Education, 1930-33; College Place Church, Greensboro, 1934.

Brother Kirk was a trustee of Duke University and of Davenport College. He was a director of the Children's Home in Winston-Salem and a member of the Conference Board of Christian Education.

John Kirk, as his fellow-men knew him, was a well rounded man. He was mentally alert and physically vigorous. Endowed with intellectual capacities above the average, he learned how to think clearly and concisely, and he kept up with the thought life of his time. His spirit in truth-seeking was contagious. Young men who talked and lived with him were inspired with a passion to study and to excel in the pursuit of knowledge.

He was a natural educator. His professional life began with teaching. When called to the ministry he continued to teach with truth as his subject and Christlike character as his goal. As a trustee of Duke University and Davenport College he administered the higher education of his church. As Executive Secretary of the Conference Board of Christian Education he administered the religious education of his church. He was constantly sought as a teacher in the training schools and assemblies of the Conference. His local church was always a school of religion in the highest sense of the term.

He was an executive. In all his educational activities he was entrusted with administrative responsibility. He could plan well and execute his plans. Three times his church appointed him to the presiding eldership. When in the pastorate every part of his church was galvanized to purposeful activity. He neglected no part of the church's program.

He was an evangelist. He was gifted in winning people to Jesus Christ and in building them in the faith and in Christlike character. His revivals were not things apart. They were the center of his entire church program. His last year was one of the most fruitful of his ministry. During 1934 he received 83 into College Place Church. Fifty-nine of them were by profession of faith. Spiritual power was manifest and a number were converted in the six weeks of cottage prayer meetings that preceded the special services. He personally taught two classes of children who were in training several weeks for church membership. Kirk could preach with convicting power. Though he was taken a month before annual Conference, the church was so imbued with his spirit that it carried on to completion one of the most successful years in its history.

He lived richly and adventurously. He was a lover of men and was loved by them. He loved them individually, and he loved them as fellow sons of God. He had a passion for the justice and the righteousness of the Kingdom of God. One afternoon while engaged in the tender ministry of pastoral duties God called him suddenly. He died as he lived, at work in the service of God and man.

He also loved God's handiwork in nature. He was at home in the fields, the woods, and the mountains. He had an insatiable thirst for thrilling adventures in the out of doors. Two months before his death he led a group of students of the Conference Adult Assembly to the crest of Mount Junaluska to worship at sunrise. As he watched the great light of heaven rise through a gothic arch of trees to light the mountains and the misty valleys with glories beyond description John Kirk stood in rapt silence. His eyes looked into great distances. His face shone with a radiance more beautiful than the dawning light. Perhaps even then he was looking beyond the splendor of his beloved Carolina mountains to that realm of eternal beauty into which he was so soon to be called.

REV. JAMES FRANKLIN MOSER

Rev. James Franklin Moser, son of Jason and Sarah Jane Moser, was born in Union County—a county which has given a large number of preachers to North Carolina Methodism—on April 21, 1879, and died June 10, 1934, in Burrus Memorial Hospital, High Point, from injuries sustained in an automobile collision on highway No. 10, near Lexington, that same day.

On November 14, 1897, he was married to Miss Mary Agnes Starnes whom he had known from childhood as schoolmate and friend. Fatally injured in the same automobile accident, Mrs. Moser died in Davidson Hospital, Lexington, on June 12, 1934, two days after her husband. Friends throughout childhood and youth, united in marriage for nearly thirty-seven years, they passed through the gates of death together, almost hand in hand.

They left behind a family of ten unusually fine children, five sons and five daughters: Rev. Claude Harlane Moser, Hendersonville; Dr. Stamey Everett Moser, Gastonia; Mrs. Bertha Moser Whisnant, Winston-Salem; David Franklin Moser, Kannapolis; Mrs. Annie Pearl Moser Wilson, Winston-Salem; Mrs. Ruth Moser Goldston, Kannapolis; Miss Pauline Reid Moser, Greensboro College; Miss Mary Lois Moser, Brevard College; Worth Starnes Moser, Hendersonville; and James Edward Moser, Gastonia.

The Moser family circle deserves more than passing mention. In a time of many unhappy and broken homes, the family life in this Methodist parsonage was pleasingly congenial and conspicuously gratifying to behold. Parents and children lived in a wholesome atmosphere of affection and happiness. Even the married children always came home to consult their parents before making any important decisions.

After being admitted on trial into the Western North Carolina Conference in 1908, he served eight charges during the past twenty-six years: Connelly Springs Circuit, 1908-09; Forest City, 1909-13; Belwood Circuit, 1913-17; Cherryville, 1917-23; Kannapolis, 1923-29; Burkhead, Winston-Salem, 1929-32; Coburn Memorial, Salisbury, 1932-33; Main Street, High Point, 1933 till June 10, 1934. In two pastorates he remained four years each; in two other pastorates, six years each. He wore well.

His preparation for the ministry is a story of heroic endeavor and glorious self-denial. When he entered Rutherford College, there were four children in his home and less than one hundred dollars in his pocket. Although friends tried to dissuade him from entering upon four years of academic life, he refused to be discouraged and continued on. Even if others were counseling him to take the easier course, because they said it was then too late for him to undertake such preparation, he chose the harder and more difficult way and was able to leave Rutherford College owing others in money only seventy-five dollars.

Several close friends of Brother Moser have written me that there was no unholy ambition in his heart. He did not seek promotion or large salaries. He was eager to go to the place where the bishop and the presiding elders thought he could do the most good. There was no hint of hesitancy or word of bitterness after he heard his appointment for a new year read. He accepted with such good grace circumstances which sometimes seemed to others rigorous and trying. He undertook with cheerfulness and courage whatever work was assigned to him.

His sermons were delivered in a most sincere and earnest manner. Even when he was uttering convictions that were firm, his spirit was always pleasing and lovable. There was never any captious and biting criticism of his congregation. He could speak the truth in love. His people knew that he cared about them. He could tell them frank things about their sins. He radiated a gospel of loving earnestness and constant eagerness to help and brighten. His preaching was deeply spiritual and decidedly evangelistic. When he came into the pulpit, his people felt that he had recently been closeted with his Lord. Consequently, his preaching was most effective and his pastorates always successful. Never shall I forget the impression which his last sermon, preached during a revival in his own church, on Friday night before the accident on Saturday morning, made on me: his yearning spirituality, his loyalty to our Lord's high principles and ideals, and his loving eagerness to get us of the congregation to know our Lord better!

Before writing this paper, I received letters from some of his friends saying: "I have never known any man who was more pleasant and agreeable"; "he attracted rather than repelled men"; "when he came into my office, I felt myself in the presence of a godly and spiritually-minded man"; "he was not guilty of loafing or of idle gossip, because he was always about his Father's business"; "I think I have never known a man who more thoroughly devoted his time and all his energy to his work"; "he was as nearly unselfish as any man I ever saw"; "no boasting spirit ever characterized his life"; "former congregations continued to love him long after he was sent to other pastorates"; "he was a man who could get close to you"; "he was constantly interested in every member of his church, rich and poor alike"; "he was easy to love, because he was a friend to everybody"; "no pastor was ever more popular, yet he made no compromise with sin"; "he shared the joys and sorrows of the members of his congregation, as well as those of people outside who needed him"; "his pastoral visits brought comfort and inspiration and hope"; "his home was so hospitable. We were always welcomed at the parsonage. He impressed upon us that the parsonage was our home, too"; "he loved folks, and they loved him."

His body is buried in Greenlawn Cemetery, between China Grove and Kanapolis, where it sleeps in a grave by the side of the road, by the side of the highway of life!

He has gone, let us believe, to join the Master and his old comrades of the Methodist ministry in God's Other Room.

"God buries His workmen, but continues His work." Farewell to friend and comrade, Moser, who is now faring on! Who follows in his train?

W. A. LAMBETH.

REV. CHARLES FLETCHER SHERRILL

Charles Fletcher Sherrill, son of Rev. M. V. Sherrill and Martha Douglas Sherrill, was born at Statesville, N. C., September 22, 1861. He was converted under the preaching of his father and felt called to preach.

He was prepared for college at Olin Institute, Iredell County, by Professor W. M. Brooks, who afterwards married Rev. C. F. Sherrill's sister.

Mr. Sherrill taught school a few years, and then became associated with his brother, J. B. Sherrill, in owning and editing The Times, at Concord.

In 1888 he was graduated from Randolph Macon College with distinction. During his senior year in college he served West Hanover Circuit, near Ashland, Virginia.

On November 16, 1888, he was married to Miss Nannie J. Swain, of Randolph County, niece of Captain J. M. Odell and Mr. J. A. Odell.

In the fall of 1888 he was admitted on trial into the traveling connection at the North Carolina Conference held at New Bern. He served the following named charges: Lenoir Station, 1888-89; Mattamuskeet Circuit, 1890-91; Beaufort Station, 1891-92; Duncan Memorial Church, Ashland, Va., 1892-93; Madison Circuit, 1893-97; Franklin Station, 1897-98; Newton Circuit, 1898-1901; Shelby Station, 1901-04; Waynesville District, 1904-07; Morganton District, 1907-08; Shelby District, 1908-09; Shelby, 1909-10; Matthews Charge, 1910-11; Waxhaw, 1911-12; Mount Pleasant, 1912-14; Salisbury, South Main Street, 1914-15; Pleasant Garden, 1915-19; Wentworth, 1919-21; West Greensboro, 1921-23.

At the North Carolina Conference, held at Goldsboro, December 14-19, 1892, Brother Sherrill was transferred to the Virginia Conference, and was then appointed to Duncan Memorial Church, Ashland, Va. This church is located on the campus of Randolph-Macon College.

Within the period 1923-1933 he sustained the superannuate relation.

From various published records there is evidence that Brother Sherrill rendered constructive service in the ministry. Throughout the period of thirty-six years in the active ministry he had the reputation of going to his appointments without dissatisfaction and in a hopeful spirit. One who knew him intimately paid this tribute to him: "His faith in God's goodness was beautiful."

For several years he reported the Conference proceedings for the Charlotte Observer, and during many years he contributed to the Charlotte Observer and to the Greensboro Daily News a Sunday feature known as "Sabbath Meditations."

The following is an extract from a tribute paid by J. Beverly DeShazo, M.D., Ridgeway, Va.: "To the hundreds, if not thousands of readers of the Sunday Daily News like myself, this corner which has been looked to eagerly every Sunday for the 'Better Life', so faithfully contributed to for 14 years by Rev. C. F. Sherrill, of Shelby, N. C., now, like all things earthly, ceases to be. . . . When we think of the years he spent, the days of each year, more the hours of every day he read, copied and wrote, that he might in his own way point to the better life, something more than a few words of praise is due for his untiring efforts to guide his delighted readers."

On December 21, 1933, Rev. C. F. Sherrill died at his home in Shelby after an illness of about two years. On Friday, December 23, the funeral was conducted at the residence of Dr. E. K. McLarty, pastor of Central Methodist Church, Shelby, and Dr. W. W. Peele, pastor of First Church, Charlotte. Interment was in the Shelby cemetery.

Surviving are the widow; two daughters, Miss Ollie Sherrill, of Greensboro, and Mrs. J. D. Lineberger, of Shelby; three sons, Frank O. and James Sherrill, of Charlotte, and Charles Sherrill, of Roanoke, Virginia.

S. B. TURRENTINE.

REV. MAGRUDER HILL TUTTLE

Magruder Hill Tuttle, son of Sheriff Robert G. Tuttle and Lucinda Puett Tuttle, was born in Caldwell County, April 7, 1859. He spent his childhood and youth amid trying circumstances. At the time of his birth the war clouds were rapidly gathering over the nation, and ere long the war storm broke. A number of his family and other near relatives went to the front. Several were killed, others were wounded. He, with other members of the family, felt the terror of the war and reconstruction.

In spite of the difficulties he faced as a lad he secured an education and developed traits of character that fitted him for a life of usefulness. While he was yet a very young man he was chosen to fill out an unexpired term of his father as sheriff of Caldwell County. When this term ended he was elected sheriff by the vote of the people. Before the two years of this term had passed, he was deeply impressed that his life's work was the Christian ministry. He resigned as sheriff and went to Randolph-Macon College for further preparation for the great task ahead.

He joined the North Carolina Conference which met in New Bern in 1888. His appointments were as follows: Yadkinville, 1889; LaGrange, 1890; Mount Olive and Faison, 1891-92; Roxboro, 1893-96; Oxford, 1897-99; Henderson, 1900-01; Hertford, 1902-04; Lenoir Circuit, 1907-08; Hartland, 1909-10; Franklin, 1911-13; Hamlet, 1914-17; Kinston, 1918; South Lenoir, 1920-23; Hudson, 1924; South Lenoir, 1925-26.

He was supernumerary for the years 1905-06 and 1919. His active service in the pastorate covered a period of thirty-five years, twenty-one in the North Carolina Conference and fourteen in the Western North Carolina Conference.

Magruder Tuttle was an unusually strong and helpful preacher. His sermons were logical, practical and inspiring. In delivery he was always forceful and often eloquent. Out of his own rich and abiding Christian experience he preached. He had an experience that began while he was young and ripened as the years passed. He was a close student of human nature and possessed a rare insight into the characters of men. Some of his greatest sermons were on Bible characters. This ability to analyze character fitted him to speak most appropriately at the many funerals he was called to hold. Also it must be said that he was a Bible preacher. He knew his Bible and nothing delighted him more than to unfold its great truths to a waiting congregation. He chose great texts and gave himself without stint to the discovery and application of their deepest meaning. One of his favorite texts was Romans 1:14, another was Revelation 7:13, 14. Who that heard him preach on one of these texts can ever forget it?

In 1886 he was married to Louisa Ervin who, through all the years, shared with him the hardships and privations as well as the joys and triumphs of the itineracy. For almost fifty years they walked together the path of life, then suddenly, without an hour's warning, he passed on to the heavenly land to wait for those left behind. To this union were born ten children.

When he took the superannuate relation he settled in the community where he was born and where his early years were spent. His retirement from the pastorate did not mean a life of indifference and idleness. He continued to be deeply interested in all that concerned the people of his community and his nation. Frequently and gladly he preached and performed other services to the very end.

While in his garden, out in God's great outdoors which he loved so much, he was stricken just before noon on June 27, 1934, and in about an hour breathed his last, being seventy-five years of age. On June 29, after brief services in the home, his body was carried to First Church, Lenoir, where the funeral service was held by Rev. C. E. Rozzelle, Rev. D. A. Oakley, Rev. Ebenezer Myers and Rev. R. M. Courtney. His body lies in the cemetery in Lenoir awaiting the resurrection morning.

R. M. COURTNEY.

REV. MILES HENRY VESTAL

On January 30, 1934, Miles Henry Vestal was transferred from the realm of time to the region of eternal bliss. He went as he had lived, with his face set steadfastly toward the city of God.

He was born in Yadkin County, January 6, 1858, the son of Isaac N. and Lila Vestal.

Brother Vestal was clean in speech, in conduct, and in personal appearance. He believed that anyone's personal appearance was an index to his character, and to his soul. Humor of a wholesome nature was always enjoyed by him, but he frowned on all which was salacious or indecent. Brother Vestal was truly a Christian gentleman. Because of these beautiful traits of character, he won the confidence and friendship of the people he served. Friends, to him, were more valuable than gold or silver. He loved people and multitudes mourn his passing.

He came from a good home. He was taught to admire the finer things of life, to love the beautiful, to be respectful, and to be courteous. Never, during his long life did he depart from this early training. From early manhood he saw the great need of better rural churches, schools and roads. When a young man in the mercantile business and on the farm, he dreamed of better days for his rural county. He served as representative from Yadkin County in the State Legislature for two terms (1889 and 1891). After he had served his church for more than 30 years, he returned to his native county, and here among his friends and kinsfolk he lived the remainder of his days.

He was a life-long student. He attended school at Jonesville Academy, and later went to Wytheville, Virginia, where he continued his school work, teaching part of the time, and studying, until eye-trouble forced him to leave school just a short time before he was to receive his degree. But he did not stop. He was mastered with a determination to go on and conquer, rather than quit and be conquered. Previous hardships and difficulties had been overcome. He was prepared to tackle harder tasks. He obtained a workable knowledge of Greek and Latin, being able to read both fluently. He loved the English classics, especially the works of Shakespeare and Dickens. Before a glowing fire on winter evenings, he related how the children would sit and read and really enjoy these old stories from the pen of these immortals. But above all, the Bible received his greatest attention. All that knew him agree that he was a Bible scholar of no mean standing. He made it the guide-book of his life. He preached with power from its pages.

He professed faith in Christ and joined the church at the age of 13. He related that he does not remember when he did not attend Sunday school and church services. He began to pray in public at the age of 16. He was brought up in the church, and served in every office of the local church, including that of class leader and Sunday school superintendent.

On January 16, 1879, he was united in marriage to Victoria Haynes. To this union were born 10 children. The widow and eight children survive.

He joined the Western North Carolina Conference in Asheville in 1891. He has faithfully served the following appointments: Watauga Circuit, Stokes Circuit, Davie Charge, Farmington Circuit, Mt. Zion Station, King's Mountain Station, Davidson Charge, Walkertown Station, Presiding Elder of North Wilkesboro District for four years, Matthews Charge, Waxhaw Station, and Epworth, Concord. With the passing of Brother Vestal the church has lost a faithful servant, a good preacher; the community has been deprived of a noble citizen; and a home is minus a loyal husband and a devoted father.

"Servant of God, well done,
Rest from thy loved employ."

MRS. JAMES FRANKLIN MOSER

Mrs. James Franklin Moser, born January 31, 1878, died June 12, 1934, from injuries sustained in an automobile wreck in which her husband also was killed. She was married November 4, 1897, to Rev. J. F. Moser and shared with him for long years the joys and sorrows of an itinerant. She kept the home fires burning and trained her children to love and fear the Lord. No sacrifice was too great for her to make when the interests of her husband and children were involved. She lived a beautiful life and when the end came she was ready to meet her Lord.

Patronize Your Own PRINTING PLANT

¶ We do not feel that we are asking too much in urging our pastors, churches, schools and all connectional interests to order all their printing from the Advocate.

¶ We are equipped to handle anything from a visiting card to a book as economically and expeditiously as any printshop in the state.

¶ Some of our city's most prominent business institutions are among our best customers; but it is to the great North Carolina Methodist family that the Advocate looks expectantly for its principal patronage.

RECENT BOOKS ON SUBJECTS OF RELIGION

THE RENEWING GOSPEL

An Interpretation of Christianity for the Present Day

By Walter Russell Bowle

THE BASIC BELIEFS OF JESUS

(The Cole Lectures 1935)

By Bishop Paul B. Kern

What did Jesus believe? The author finds the answer not in any formal creed but in the Life behind the creed. Few contemporary writers have attempted this incisive study. Bishop Kern does—and gives us a book in which are many elements of freshness and greatness.

THUS PRAY YE

By James I. Vance, D.D.

Dr. Vance's latest work is on the important subject of the "Lord's Prayer," the title of which has been taken from the words in which Jesus introduced the Prayer "Thus pray ye." As is true of everything Dr. Vance writes, it is full of deep spiritual insight and knowledge of the human heart.

GOD AND THE COMMON LIFE

(A Religious Book Club Selection)

By Robert L. Calhoun

THE POWER TO SEE IT THROUGH

By

Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick

The increasing demand for Dr. Fosdick's sermons in published form calls for this volume which contains twenty-five sermons now for the first time available in book form. Like the two earlier volumes, the book contains inspirational messages, characteristically simple, that deal with problems, hopes, and desires that characterize our modern day.

A GOD-CENTERED FAITH

By Hugh Thomson Kerr, D.D.

Dr. Kerr is widely known as a clear, refreshing preacher whose work is never pedantic. This latest volume of the Stone Lectures (Princeton) for 1935 will enhance Dr. Kerr's reputation and at the same time constitute a valuable appraisal of the root values of the Church of which he is a recognized leader.

"Year after year we continue to dedicate this hour to the memory of our fallen comrades. I doubt that we do anything during the Conference more appropriate or beneficial. Burke caught up a great truth and encased it in imperishable speech when he said that 'Civilization is a contract between three parties—the living, the unborn and the noble dead.' We would be loath to allow the pressure of business or other forms of worship to crowd out this sacred hour.

For the last two years the President of our body has made it a bit easier for us by putting more of decorum and therefore less of ordeal in this order of service. We manage our emotions a little better when they are geared in to the movements of stately ritual and inspired Scripture.

"There is, however, no art or science, no expedient of love or wisdom, that can take all the sting out of death. We may flush pale cheeks with artificial color, lay them tenderly away under the blanket of flowers and comfort our hearts by recalling their virtues. These help to allay the pain and counteract the loneliness of the Great Separation. Yet are the days weary and the nights insufferably long. They are gone—and they will not come back, save in our dreams and sometimes in strange psychic experiences.

"The thing to do—the source of our solace, is to go again to Him who hath set eternity in our hearts and brought immortality to light. Here we see 'how firm a foundation is laid for our faith in his excellent word.' Here only will the stars shine through our cypress trees and the healing of His wings over shade us. For when a man's dearest dies, then he goes to that old balm for the centuries woes; when Christ's glad cry throughout the street is rife: 'I am the resurrection and the life.' You will recall Browning's picture of the death of St. John. This aged disciple was the last witness who had seen the Lord in the flesh; the only survivor who had heard His words spoken. And now he is about to die. He is rapidly passing into the coma of silence, lingering on the borderland. But his friends would not let him go. They held him out of the gates for another minute by quoting in his cold ear this same great soul-stimulant, 'I am the resurrection and the life. Whosoever believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live, and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.' Then he opened his eyes, sat up and poured out his heart in one last glorious talk.

"And no man save Jesus ever talked with such confidence concerning Eternal Life and the deep things of God. His calm affirmations—the key to his writings—is 'we know.' He is not faintly trusting the larger hope nor indulging the wish-thought that 'good shall be the final goal of ill.' He is stating a solid truth. Over against Job's agonizing agnosticism 'if a man shall die shall he live again?' he asserts, 'we know that we have passed from death unto life'—that 'this is the record,' that God hath given us Eternal Life 'in his Son.' That even 'now are we the sons of God and it doth not yet appear what we shall be. But we know that when he shall appear we shall be like Him.' Thus he lifts the curtain on the long future of unlimited development in which a man may match his life against the Eternities.

"In Sistine Chapel there is the picture of the Spirit-Creator touching the body of man with his fingers and like an electric spark, the body is animated, illustrating the Scripture, 'man became a living soul.' Whether Angelo's conception carried reality with it or not, this we do know: the soul has elsewhere its setting, we came trailing clouds of glory and the grave is not its goal. A recent biographer of Emerson, the sage of Concord, tells of his last days. The writer dwells much on the acumen and strength of his transcendent mind, and saying that toward the last he grew even thinner in flesh and that at times his soul seemed to shine through his body and rim the frail temple with a nimbus of glory.

"Along with you ministers and in company with many men who have seen their purposes broken off or their homes made desolate, I have re-examined the old evidences and intimations of immortality. From the ancient hope which made the Egyptian erect the pyramids, the Arab tie the camel beside the grave of his chieftain, and the Indian bury the weapons of the chase to be used in the Happy Hunting Grounds to Cato's strange reasoning and strange longing after immortality. I have weighed them all and with what results?

"I feel beneath me these solid truths. I rest my case on the nature and character of God, the reality of spiritual life and the resurrection of the dead. I lay me heartily on the greatness and goodness of God. 'When in the maddening maze of things and tossed by storm and flood, to one fixed stake my spirit clings. I know that God is good.' I know the wise goodness of the Father is not incompatible with human suffering, pain and death. Like Goethe we can almost say, 'I never had an affliction which was not turned into a poem.' This comes to us borne on bier and pall—it is better to have loved and lost than never to have loved at all.

"The resurrection becomes more credible, the physical miracle may fade in importance, this remains; Jesus lived his life solely on the basis of the reality and the enduring importance of the spiritual order. He challenged the apparent deceitful appearance of things—the alleged solid constitution of the world of matter, showed up its sham until Paul, seeing what he had done, is able to declare, 'we look not nor count on the things which are seen but the things which are unseen, for the things which are seen are temporal but the things which are not seen are eternal.' Plato talked about the reality of ideas but Jesus did something about it. He put it to the test and God did not disappoint him. He could not. He dared not let him stay in the grave in the grip of death. He came to ignore and to defeat the last enemy. He put it up to God by living a life solely in the light of spiritual demands and ends, and God had to make good by fetching him out of his earthly prison, and enthroning him on high far above all principalities and powers.

"We must not forget the integrity of Jesus was involved in this thing. He had said, 'In my Father's house are many mansions, if it were not so, I would have told you.' I would not let you hug a delusion nor deny an instinct as old as the race. The human heart will not be allowed for ever to indulge a fond hope only to have to turn to despair. In the light of what Jesus said and proof of what he did, why should it be thought a thing incredible that God should raise the dead! It seems to be not only credible but necessary. Therefore, 'Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you.' (I Peter 1:3-4).

At 12:45 o'clock the Conference adjourned with the benediction pronounced by the Bishop.

REPORT OF BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

A. THE LOCAL CHURCH

During the past year the field work of your Board of Christian Education has consisted of the regular program of activities with an effort to re-emphasize certain phases of work curtailed during recent years.

In the training program 3,853 units of credit were issued. These were earned in the following agencies: fourteen Standard training schools, seventy Cokesbury classes, the pastors' school, the leadership schools, departments of religion in church colleges, the young people's assembly, and in Christian culture institutes held throughout the Conference.

High commendation is due the churches responsible for the following facts: approximately sixty vacation church schools were held; 263 schools carried out a continuous educational program for missions on fourth Sundays and contributed $8,945.78 to the Home and Foreign Missionary Enterprise; 227 schools observed Church School Day and gave $1,407.92 to the support of the Conference work; Childhood and Youth Week, Young People's Day, College Day were observed in a number of churches and the annual Methodist Student Conference was held in Raleigh with excellent results.

The renewed interest manifested by the response of local churches to the Conference program issues a challenge during the year ahead. We suggest the following points of emphasis:

1. That the young people's assembly be conducted on the same general plan followed in the past year, and a similar Conference program for intermediates.
2. That this Conference endorse and commend the church-wide conference for young people to be held in Memphis, December 27-31.
3. That special cultivation be given for vacation church schools, looking toward 150 schools properly planned and conducted during 1936.
4. That the Board of Christian Education co-operate with the Board of Missions and Woman's Missionary Societies in furthering the extension program in unoccupied areas and in work with people of other races.
5. That presiding elders, members of the Conference staff, district directors and pastors insist that the Church Board of Christian Education be utilized in planning for and in administering the program in each local church.
6. That our church schools make use of a season of evangelism for the enlistment, consecration, and cultivation of its children, its young people and its adults.
7. That there be set up a Conference School for Christian Workers where leaders from all parts of the Conference may come together for a week of study, inspiration and fellowship unhampered by the round of daily duties at home. This may be done by pooling the interests of the Adult Assembly and the Children's Workers' Conference and by providing for leaders of young people who now have no conference-wide gathering.
8. That we emphatically urge the 578 schools not now observing the fourth Sunday as Missionary Day, seriously to consider this opportunity for missionary education and for sharing with others, and to lay plans for such regular observance as soon as possible.

9. That we urge the 614 schools which this year did not observe Church School Day to plan for the observance of this special occasion during 1936.

10. That our churches take advantage of every opportunity for educating our members as to the evils of alcoholic beverages, and that total abstinence be taught in our church schools.

11. That we urge the use of our own literature in our church schools. We especially endorse and commend the following new periodicals: "The Christian Home," "The Beginner Class," and "Stories for the Little Child"; and also the new Methodist Hymnal.

12. That the celebration of the four hundredth anniversary of the printing of the Coverdale Bible be utilized as an unusual opportunity to teach and to re-interpret the meaning and significance of the Holy Scriptures for our people.

We recommend the election of the following staff:

B. SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES

The following communication from the trustees of Davenport College was received:

Gastonia, North Carolina
October 17, 1935.

To the Board of Christian Education of the Western North Carolina Conference:

The Board of Trustees of Davenport College, in its meeting since the adjournment of the last Annual Conference, has been considering the various aspects of the proposed merger of Davenport College with Greensboro College. In a meeting of this Board on October the 17th, 1935, a motion was made, seconded, and unanimously carried that the Conference Board of Christian Education be asked to recommend to the Conference that it rescind its action providing for the merger of Davenport and Greensboro Colleges. I am herewith transmitting to you that request on the part of the Board of Trustees.

(Signed) JOHN W. HOYLE, JR., Acting Secretary of Board.

We recommend that this request be granted.

The following resolution from the Board of Trustees of Brevard College was presented by W. H. Bobbitt:

RESOLVED: That the Board of Christian Education be and is requested to recommend that this 1935 session of the Annual Conference adopt a resolution substantially as follows:

RESOLUTION

"RESOLVED: That the Western North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at this 1935 annual session, hereby specifically authorizes the Board of Trustees of Brevard College, Incorporated, to convey, and to authorize the conveyance by the corporation's proper officers, by long-term lease, fee simple deed or other form of legal transfer approved by said Board of Trustees, to the Town of Brevard, a municipal corporation, a tract of vacant land, now owned by Brevard College, Incorporated, namely: a tract of approximately 5.05 acres, within the corporate limits of the Town of Brevard, and more particularly described as follows:

"Beginning at the corner formed by the intersection of the east line of Broad Street and the north line of East French Broad Street, and running thence in a southeasterly direction with said north line of French Broad Street 500 feet to an iron stake; thence in a northeasterly direction and parallel with Broad Street 500 feet to an iron stake; thence in a northwesterly direction 480.8 feet to an iron stake on the east line of Broad Street, which iron stake is located 400 feet northeast along Broad Street from said intersection of Broad Street and East French Broad Street; thence in a southwesterly direction along said east line of Broad Street 400 feet to the beginning.

"RESOLVED, FURTHER: That any conveyance of said land by Brevard College, Incorporated, under authority of this resolution, shall be made for such considerations and upon such terms as the Board of Trustees of Brevard College, Incorporated, in its discretion and judgment, may determine or approve."

We recommend the adoption of this resolution.

The Board has given due consideration to reports from Duke University, Greensboro College, and Brevard College, and the Board of Managers of North Carolina Pastors' School. It is gathered from these reports that all our schools are in a healthy, prosperous state, each of them promoting a successful program.

To Dr. S. B. Turrentine, who completed, at the close of the last scholastic year, twenty-two years consecutive service as President of Greensboro College, the grateful appreciation of this Conference is hereby expressed.

The administration of Dr. L. L. Gobbel, as President of Greensboro College, has begun with unusual promise and with hearty co-operation from the Board of Trustees, the students, the alumnae, and the entire constituency.

The amount apportioned by the Commission on Budget is $41,774.

We recommend that the apportionment for schools and colleges total $30,000; that from the amount collected, for schools and colleges, the sum of $1,140 be used for the payment of the coupons of the $19,000 second mortgage bonds of Rutherford College as they mature; and that other appropriations be made as follows:

We recommend that the apportionment for local church work be $12,000.

We request the confirmation of D. S. Elias, P. H. Hanes, T. F. Marr, S. B. Turrentine, as trustees of Duke University; C. A. Bray, trustee of Greensboro College; as trustees of Brevard College for the six year term beginning now: Mrs. E. L. McKee, H. B. Kelly, J. H. Pickelsimer, A. W. Plyler, J. H. West, Mrs. C. C. ## REPORT OF INTER-CONFERENCE COMMISSION

Your Inter-Conference Commission was enlarged and continued by the 1934 session of the Conference for the purpose "of carrying out the will of the Conference in regard to Greensboro and Davenport Colleges."

Since the Conference on Saturday rescinded its action whereby Greensboro College and Davenport College were merged and thereby disposed of the responsibility of your Commission, we ask for its discontinuance and recommend that any matters arising in the future touching these institutions be transferred to the Conference Board of Christian Education.

REPORT OF BOARD OF CHRISTIAN LITERATURE

It would be exceedingly difficult to over-emphasize the importance of good literature in forming character and in creating wholesome ideals and attitudes. If our people are not availing themselves of the privilege of reading books and periodicals such as will lift them to a higher plane of living, it is not because of a lack of such material. In fact, we have such a sufficiency of good reading matter that we are sometimes embarrassed because we have not the time in which to read and assimilate it.

We urge our people to make large use of such literature as will not only provide wholesome entertainment and instruction, but will also bring to the reader a deep sense of the presence of God and a clearer conception of the significance of human life.

We are gratified that the report of the Publishing House shows a gain of 7.33 per cent in sales over last year. A profit of $86,270.76 was made on these sales, which amount is an increase of $20,172.29 over the year before. The percentage of increase in profits is slightly more than 5½.

As a result of these increased sales, the Publishing House has been able to appropriate the sum of $75,000 to the superannuated preachers of our church. The portion paid to our Conference is $3,480.42.

We note with pleasure that the circulation of our church school literature has taken a turn for the better. We urge every school in our church to make use of the literature provided by our Publishing House, than which there is none better, and, all told, none cheaper.

Your Board cannot too strongly emphasize the importance of our general organ, the Christian Advocate, in keeping the whole church informed concerning the vital issues that confront it. The vigorous stand which it takes upon questions of moral and spiritual import, the sane and clear-cut editorials, and the informative quality of its articles, all combine to make it one of the leading religious periodicals of our day. The subscription list of this paper ought to be much larger than it is at present.

We strongly recommend to our people the devotional booklet, the Upper Room. Nothing that has come from our press in recent years has been received more enthusiastically, nor been more widely acclaimed than this aid to devotion. During the first quarter of its existence 100,000 copies were sold. The second quarter showed the sale of 160,000 copies and the present quarter 200,000. Words of praise for this book are heard not only from our own people, but from the people of other churches as well.

We urge that our churches, as rapidly as possible, turn to the use of our new hymnal. This book, containing as it does, the best that is old and the best that is new in songs, is doctrinally sound and musically admirable. Its use will make unnecessary the purchase of any other song book as it contains songs suitable for every type of service. This book, the result of the labors of a joint commission appointed by the three branches of Methodism in this country, is an evidence of the vital unity in thought and purpose of the people called Methodists. We hail it as the forerunner of a still more vital union on the part of these people.

NORTH CAROLINA CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE

The report of the North Carolina Christian Advocate shows a net profit of $2,658, an increase of $500.00 over last year. This profit was made possible by work done in the job printing department and by a continued reduction of 20% in the salaries of the staff. It is used in subsidizing the Advocate, as the paper does not earn enough through its subscription list to pay for its publication.

The campaign for new subscribers has been more successful this year than in several years past. Especially noteworthy is the fact that, in our Conference, there are 66 official boards subscribing 100%. An effort will be made during the coming year to double this number.

We believe that the North Carolina Christian Advocate is the best religious journal to be found anywhere and we strongly urge our ministers and laymen to continue in their efforts until this paper goes into every Methodist home.

A paragraph taken from a letter written by our Bishop recently is of interest at this point: "I wish also to assure the Board that I think the time has come for us to make plans for a still further increase in the number of subscribers. In this matter we have but fairly begun our work. No small portion of the credit for the excellent spirit prevailing in the two North Carolina Conferences is due to the significant increase in the number of readers of our Conference organ."

We approve most heartily the goals which have been set up for the coming year. They are:

1. A continuous effort on the part of preachers and laymen to make the North Carolina Christian Advocate a positive force in the social, the educational, and the religious life of the state. For this Advocate is definitely committed to the uplift of all the people in North Carolina and to the coming of the Kingdom in all the earth.

2. The circulation of the North Carolina Christian Advocate is essential to our work and should be put on a level with missions, religious education, orphanages and other interests of the church.

3. The chairman of each board of stewards to work with the pastor in putting the Advocate into the home of every steward so that the Board of Lay

Activities, which is now the board of stewards, may become informed and the church thereby may have an intelligent leadership.

4. Make the ultimate for the Bishop, the presiding elders, pastors, lay leaders and missionary women the putting of the church paper into every Methodist home. This will mean a better Advocate, better homes and better churches. A united campaign to this end will result in full collections, and better paid ministers and missionaries. Lack of knowledge and want of fellowship with the Christ is the hurt of our people. Our redemption—the healing of this hurt—must be found in the output of the printing press and the fellowship of a spiritual ministry.

We recommend that T. C. Hoyle be appointed to succeed himself as a member of the Board of Publication and that A. W. Plyler be appointed Editor and Manager of the North Carolina Christian Advocate.

(Signed) R. C. GOFORTH, Chairman,
A. C. TIPPETT, Secretary.

BOARD OF MISSIONS—REPORT NO. 1

We feel that the work of the current year gives occasion for thanksgiving to our Heavenly Father, because of the enlarged spirit of interest in the benevolences of the church. Likewise, we esteem the loyalty of our people in taking up the benevolent program on a new basis and bringing it to a happy conclusion.

We recommend in the continuance of this work:

1. That the education campaign for missions be continued and enlarged by giving emphasis to the importance of the District Missionary Institutes to be held at the following times and places:

BOARD OF MISSIONS—REPORT NO. 2

For general information about our Golden Cross work, we submit the following report of the work of our hospital:

"We, the trustees of the Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital, submit the following report:

"During the year we have received and cared for 1,188 patients with a total of 10,733 days. Of this number, 4,505 days have been full paid, 4,582 free, and other days part paid.

"We have had since April first, the hospital overcrowded, having sometimes as many as fifty per cent over-full; these patients being crowded into the wards and hallways. The free care has cost the hospital $15,532.98, exclusive of any professional fees.

"We are closing up the year free of debt and with a cash balance of $1,400.

"We ask the confirmation of the following trustees for a term of three years: L. B. Abernethy, A. L. Butler, R. M. Chatham, R. O. Lindsay."

(Signed) CHARLES C. WEAVER, Chairman,
J. D. RANKIN, Secretary.

REPORT OF BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION

Your Board has carefully considered each application submitted, and wish to express our appreciation for the interest manifested by a great number of congregations in liquidating debts of long standing. Donations have been made in such a way as to encourage the furtherance of this type of work in our Conference.

We note, with pleasure, that our people are giving more attention to the disciplinary requirements in the promotion of building enterprises and urge that careful consideration be given to available means at hand before any building project is undertaken.

It has come to the attention of your Board that in certain instances laymen have been encouraged to assume church debts as individual obligations in order to dedicate the church, after which such obligations directly or indirectly revert to the congregation. This not only embarrasses the congregation, but complicates the matter of assistance from your Board, and we urge our presiding elders and pastors to avoid making such errors.

We recommend adequate insurance on all church property.

The following grants have been made:

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON BUDGET

2. That, in view of the pressing needs of Greensboro College and Brevard College, these institutions be allowed to solicit funds to enable them to carry on their work.

3. That the General and Conference funds be divided on the basis of .4800 for General work and .5200 for Conference work.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Your Board of Trustees, to which has been committed certain trust funds and other funds to hold in trust for the Conference, has been diligent in its efforts to handle these funds in a manner that will yield the best income possible, and to direct such incomes as the donors stipulated in their gifts and bequests.

This has required some litigation and certain foreclosures, which requires time and patience and no little thought and care. But we have about reached the end of these things and there should now be greater incomes for the beneficiaries of such investments. The Treasurer's report for the year will show that a considerable part of this year's income has been used to pay back taxes that could not be delayed any longer.

To our holdings this year has been added a superannuate home, the gift of Central Church, Asheville, and located in the City of Asheville. This Board has contributed two hundred and fifty dollars to make necessary repairs. We now have a house and lot valued at $1,500, and it is occupied by one of our superannuates and his family.

In its annual meeting, held in Salisbury, North Carolina, October 24, 1935, the following resolution was adopted:

"Pending the completion of our program of protecting our loans through foreclosure, the Treasurer is instructed to pay to the Board of Finance $800.00 for the superannuate fund and to hold the remainder of any funds not otherwise directed until a later meeting of the Board."

The Treasurer's report for the year follows:

RECEIPTS:

From rents and interest collected, etc. .... $3,499.38

REPORT OF BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

BENEVOLENCES

We commend the efforts of the laymen and the ministers of the Western North Carolina Conference which have accomplished the goal of 100% payment of acceptances. We believe that the Victory Rallies, initiated and directed by our Bishop, have made possible the accomplishment of the goal. We urge that every effort possible be made to make reasonable increases in the amount of benevolences assumed throughout the Conference the coming year.

ADEQUATE SUPPORT OF MINISTRY

We earnestly urge every charge Board to fix an adequate salary for its pastor and make monthly payments to the pastor.

CHURCH PAPER

Recognizing the North Carolina Christian Advocate as a positive force in the social, educational and religious life of the state, we urge as an ultimate goal the placing of our church paper in the home of every official member and, as far as possible, in the home of every Methodist in our Conference.

CHRISTIAN STEWARDSHIP

With a view of promoting Christian Stewardship, we make the following suggestions:

1. A district-wide mass meeting of all church officials for the purpose of setting up goals and working out plans to reach these goals.
2. A district or zone institute within the reach of every steward in our Conference for the purpose of training our stewards for the work which they are to do and also for the purpose of inspiring them to do it.
3. A local training program in every charge.
4. The use of literature prepared and sent out by our General Board in Nashville.

LAYMEN'S DAY

Realizing the importance of the Laymen's work in the program of the church, we recommend the observance of Laymen's Day the second Sunday in June, 1936, or as near thereto as possible, using the suggested program sent out by the General Board as a basis for the program to be used.

MEN'S WORK AND PERSONAL EVANGELISM

We urge a forward step in the men's work and personal evangelism among the laymen of our church for the advancement of the Kingdom. Our church has designated this as a quadrennium of evangelism and has fixed as a goal the winning of 750,000 new members. We urge that every charge lay leader, with the help of his Board, make a canvass of all persons in the community who are not church members and by the plan, "one to win one," strive to reach all non-church members and bring them into church membership and Christian fellowship.

SOCIAL SERVICE

We pledge unyielding resistance to the liquor traffic in any and all forms and urge a militant program against intemperance. We are convinced that education against intemperance, the support of kindred agencies and a vote cast only for good and honest men for all public offices can accomplish the goal of a sober nation.

We commend the efforts of the North Carolina Christian Union for Temperance and urge laymen to assist in its program.

The presiding elders and the Board of Lay Activities nominated Mr. Guy B. Phillips, of Greensboro, as Conference Lay Leader for the ensuing year.

(Signed) GUY B. PHILLIPS, Chairman,
PAUL F. EVANS, Secretary.

REPORT OF TRUSTEES OF CHILDREN'S HOME

It has been twelve months since a report has been made from the Children's Home to the Conference. During this period many situations have come along to give us joy and some to give us anxiety. In the main, things have run very smoothly and we have had much cause for encouragement. We have had no serious sickness in the family, our working force is happy in the service they render, our productive enterprises have served us well, and our friends continue to remember us with some contributions. Our boys and girls are growing and developing in a very fine way.

At present we are caring for 351 resident children—181 boys and 170 girls. These youngsters range in age from two and one-half to eighteen years. Every one of them counts for one in our family. They give us plenty to think about and plenty to do about. Twelve months' treatment for the growth and development of so many boys and girls includes every phase of human endeavor. Our mothers' aid department is providing for 155 children, making a total of 506 children now being cared for. A new building planned for thirty children is now in process of construction.

You will doubtless be interested in being reminded that, according to the Duke Endowment orphanage report, the Children's Home is spending more for food, clothing and the education of its children than the average expenditure for similar commodities and training in the thirteen largest child-caring institutions in North and South Carolina. We are spending less on administrative costs and maintenance of plant than the average for the aforesaid institutions. We are putting the emphasis where it belongs—on the growth and development of our children.

It has been quite encouraging for employers to tell us that our youngsters are very desirable. We receive more applications for the services of our girls than we can fill. At present twelve of our boys and girls are in college, three boys taking graduate work, one of these being in the School of Religion at Duke University. Dozens of our girls are either in training for becoming nurses or are already serving as graduate nurses. Quite a number of our alumni are serving as effective teachers in the North Carolina public school system. It may be safely said that the Children's Home output carries a good label.

The Children's Home, owned and sponsored by the Western North Carolina Conference, is serving more children than ever in its history. Its services have not only been enlarged but the quality of these services has been intensified. Your Board of Trustees, in a recent meeting, went on record to the effect that your child-caring institution has never been in better shape nor has served orphan and indigent children in a more effective way. The Children's Home is doing the work it was established to do.

The Children's Home is only twenty-six years old. In this period of time it has become one of the most outstanding child-caring institutions in the country. It is largely a gift from social minded and public spirited individuals to our Methodist people. Doubtless other valuable donations will be made from time to time. The great challenge presented to our Methodist people is that of maintenance.

It is not the thought of your Board of Trustees to over-emphasize the calls upon our people for the support of the work the Children's Home is to do. However, your trustees do think that our great Conference should not deny any Methodist orphan boy or girl the opportunity of making a success of living so long as we do not financially strain ourselves. Our Methodist people are asked for less and pay less for the care of their orphans than do the other leading denominations providing for orphans in the same territory.

Grateful thanks and sincere appreciation are extended to ministers and laymen in our Conference who have been led during this Conference year to liberally respond to the calls of our orphan children. Truly the little child has led us in a most unselfish line of service. Let none grow weary in well doing.

George F. Ivey, Rev. R. M. Courtney, John Paul Lucas, Dr. T. F. Marr, Thurmond Chatham, E. R. Bucher and B. S. Womble have been re-elected by your Board of Trustees to succeed themselves for a period of six years and are submitted to you for confirmation. Rev. J. S. Hiatt has been elected to fill the unexpired term of Rev. J. F. Kirk and is submitted to you for confirmation.

(Signed) T. F. MARR, Chairman Board of Trustees.

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON SPIRITUAL LIFE

Your Commission on Spiritual Life feels that it can do nothing better than bring again to the attention of this Annual Conference the Spiritual Life objectives as set forth in the report of the Committee on Unified Program of Work. This Committee met in Statesville September 28, 1934, in response to a call by Bishop Kern. Section four of this report reads as follows:

The Methodist Church has not only enough, but good enough, machinery to carry on its work. What it now needs is power to make its machinery do its work. Nor is it financial or intellectual but spiritual power that it needs. We need first to look at ourselves as ministers and laymen.

Our personal life must come first. Methodism puts primary emphasis on experience. We must re-affirm this constantly. "Is thy heart right?" is a good Methodist phrase and a pertinent question always. Every revival must start in the church and all church work must carry on in the light of a spiritual glow from the membership.

To this end we suggest:

1. That emphasis be placed on the personal life of ministers and officials especially, and that we seek to build up spiritual habits of prayer and Bible reading to the end that we may have a foundation of spiritual power in every church available for every good work.

2. That in selection of stewards, church school officers, and teachers, the character test should be placed first, so that the old phrase, "men of solid piety," will come to mean something once more in Methodism.

3. That we turn once more to place an emphasis on religion in the home, presenting constantly to parents their responsibility as well as their opportunity.

4. That services of several days duration be held at least once a year, preferably during the pre-Easter campaign, definitely for church membership, seeking to quicken spiritual sensibilities and deepen human lives.

5. That our preachers preach more frequently on the great fundamental doctrines of the Bible—a storehouse of inspiration and instruction too often neglected. We do not need to run to fads, politics, or philosophy for subject matter. The Bible is our granary from which we may get all that is necessary for spiritual life and growth.

The Annual Conference last year in Greensboro adopted these objectives as goals for the present quadrennium. We believe this was a step in the right direction, but if we are to attain these shining goals we must do more than merely adopt them and publish them in our Annual Conference minutes. We must translate them into life.

We, therefore, suggest and recommend:

1. That our Bishop conduct a consecration service before the adjournment of this Annual Conference, in which he shall give to each member of the Conference an opportunity to definitely and positively re-dedicate himself to Jesus Christ and to the achievement of these objectives of spiritual life.

2. We recommend further that each presiding elder exalt these objectives in his district and conduct a similar service at his district Conference next year.

3. We recommend also that each pastor keep these objectives clearly in mind throughout the year and lead our people to a spiritualization of daily life by a fuller consecration of themselves to Jesus Christ, his church, and its program of work.

T. A. GROCE, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BIBLE BOARD

The Bible is the word of God, not merely contains the word of God as some claim; and it is a lamp unto our feet; a light unto our path; a savor of life unto life to the believer, and of death unto death to the unbeliever; the sword of the Spirit with two edges, one edge to garner in the believer, the other edge to cut asunder the unbeliever and assign him to his portion in the pit of destruction; these things being true, we are considering the most important book in the world and we, therefore, should deal faithfully and considerately with it.

What our civilization has gained from the printed Bible during four hundred years can be multiplied by us many times over in the years ahead. All depends upon our faith in it and our devotion to its teachings, for it is our book. Centuries before English was a language, the Bible was begun. Historians, statesmen, poets and kings have contributed to it. Brave men have defended it from destruction. Patient scholars copied its text by hand, letter by letter. Learned men have translated it into hundreds of languages. Consecrated men have spent all they had, forsaken home and country, and have died in flames at the stake, all that we might have this book as our own and for the world. Are we making it our own?

The American Bible Society makes an encouraging report of the 119th year of its continuous effort in encouraging a wider circulation of the holy scriptures.

At the end of 1934 the entire Bible had been translated into 175 languages, the New Testament into 375 and the grand total of scriptures translated reached 954 languages and dialects. An improved new ten cent New Testament, in bold faced type with aids to pronunciation was added to the new series of scriptures in English.

The fourth centenary of the printed English Bible: Your Board would call especial attention to the fact that an anniversary of more than ordinary interest in the history of the Bible occurs this year. In 1535, four hundred years ago, there appeared the first printed English Bible, translated by Miles Coverdale. A national commemoration committee appointed to foster this notable fourth centenary has defined the objectives of the celebration to be: directing attention to this invaluable spiritual treasure possessed by English-speaking people for four hundred years, encouraging a fresh reading and studying of that possession, finally, making a copy of it available to every American home.

We trust that there will be a general approval of these objectives and urge the churches to co-operate in a realization of them by such promotion and participation as can be arranged. To aid in the celebration the Bible Society will issue appropriate printed material and visual aids, will sponsor at least one general meeting of nation-wide importance, will co-operate in planning suitable public meetings, and will assist local groups and churches both in helping to give fresh attention to Bible study, and in getting a copy of the Bible into every American home that does not have one. The celebration can appropriately come to a conclusion on Universal Bible Sunday on December 8 with "Four Hundred Years of the Printed English Bible" as the theme. The printed matter issued by the Society for Bible Sunday will contain material and suggestions for a worthy conclusion to the anniversary.

As there is no financial campaign attached to the anniversary, we urge the churches and pastors to co-operate heartily so that the people of America may realize more than ever their debt of gratitude for the wide availability and use of the supreme Book of mankind during the past four hundred years.

As aids available through the Bible Society for making the Bible increasingly vital, two stereopticon lectures can be secured from a number of the Mission Board officers or from any District Secretary of the Society. A "Scripture Card Exhibit" consisting of about two dozen colored cards, each containing a page from Scripture in a foreign language, with descriptive information, can be borrowed as a nucleus for Bible exhibits. Leaflets and information for use in sermons and addresses are furnished free. This body should also know that plans are being developed by the Society for assisting church groups and pastors in promoting the use of the Bible and that the United States has been redistricted so that a new district has been formed with headquarters at Atlanta. The Society, conscious of its responsibility to what may be termed the Bible cause, is endeavoring in every way to meet that responsibility worthily.

We respectfully present the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, The work of the American Bible Society is of recognized value to the Christian Church, be it resolved:

1. That we heartily endorse the American Bible Society in its purpose of making the Bible more widely and more easily available;
2. That we heartily endorse the celebration this year of four hundred years of the printed English Bible, recommending:
  - (a) that our people seek to give fresh attention to the reading and study of the Scriptures under the guidance of the pastors and with the aid of suitable literature;

- (b) that our people be encouraged to hold suitable anniversary observances in the autumn in every church and church school, endeavoring, in concert with other churches in the community or separately, to insure the possession of a Bible by every home;
- (c) that the Bible Board be authorized to assume responsibility for co-operating throughout the bounds of this body in promoting the celebration;

3. That this body rejoices that our denomination has recommended the giving of 1.15 per cent of its benevolence budget to the American Bible Society.

A. BURGESS, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON LAKE JUNALUSKA METHODIST ASSEMBLY

The property of the Assembly is still in the hands of Mr. James Atkins, Jr., Receiver, and he continues to give splendid satisfaction. He is loyal to all the interests he represents and is doing a great work in his double capacity of Receiver and faithful servant of the church.

The past season was well attended and the program was most excellent. The numerous training schools and conferences did most valuable work.

The General Conference allotment of $7,500 to our Assembly insures the continued and increasing excellence of our summer programs.

We repeat that the Lake Junaluska Methodist Assembly is one of the most beautiful places in the world and is in the center of the greatest scenic attractions of Eastern America. It lies at the gate of the marvelous Smoky Mountains National Park. It is not possible to find anywhere in the world any place that excels Lake Junaluska in the combination of loveliest scenery, the most delightful climate, the fellowship of choice Christian people, great spiritual leaders, varied and inspiring sermons, addresses, conferences, and training schools, interspersed with wholesome entertainment and noble music.

The Methodist Episcopal Church, South, owns in fee simple free of debt several acres of land on which is located the splendid Mission Building on the most commanding site on the Lake. The church also owns in fee simple a large body of land between the upper and lower parts of the Lake and on this lovely site are the large and attractive Christian Education Building, a dormitory building and a dining hall. Also several hundred loyal Methodist laymen and ministers own in fee simple attractive homes and home sites. This insures the permanence of Lake Junaluska as a center for summer homes and for religious and educational work by the church.

But we must not fail at the opportune time to clear the debt from the remaining property that is now in receivership.

We recommend that our people make their plans to go to Lake Junaluska next summer for delightful rest, wholesome recreation, and religious information and inspiration.

We recommend that E. A. Cole be elected trustee for a term of two years.

(Signed) J. B. IVEY,
CHAS. C. WEAVER.

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON METHODIST CO-OPERATION

The Commission held its annual meeting in the editorial rooms of the Christian Advocate, Greensboro, N. C., on Wednesday morning, October 16, the following brethren being present: Dr. W. A. Stanbury, Dr. M. T. Plyler, Dr. J. H. Barnhardt, Rev. C. B. Culbreth, representing the Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South; Dr. S. W. Taylor, Dr. R. M. Andrews, Dr. C. W. Bates, and Mr. W. T. Hanner, representing the Methodist Protestant Conference. At our last session an invitation was extended the Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in this state to have representation on the Commission. Dr. W. J. Plynt and Mr. I. A. Speaks were present to represent the Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference, and were welcomed to membership on the Commission.

The Commission took the following action which it submits to you for your approval:

1. That arrangements be made for the holding of a meeting, or meetings, during the year similar to the one held last January in the West Market Street M. E. Church, South. Subject to your approval, the Commission names the following brethren to have charge of the arrangements: S. W. Taylor, C. W. Bates, W. J. Plynt, W. A. Stanbury, and the Chairman of the Commission, Dr. M. T. Plyler, who was named Chairman of the Committee.

2. That we suggest and recommend to the Boards of Christian Education of the several Conferences that they consider the advisability and practicability of holding united Young People's Conferences at such times and places as may be most agreeable; and that we further suggest the desirability of co-operation in the holding of local Standard training schools, and other such schools for the training of Christian workers, it being understood that there shall be an exchange of credits between the various Boards. We would suggest also that the ministers of the three churches take advantage of the courses offered in the Pastors' Schools of the three denominations. These suggestions are offered as a means not merely for more adequate instruction in Christian life and service, but because they present an opportunity for larger fellowship and acquaintance.

3. The Commission wishes to go on record as expressing its gratification that the Commissions on the Unification of Methodism have, as a result of their meetings during the year, formulated, and adopted by unanimous vote, a Basis of Union which we understand is to be released to the denominational press about the first of December. We rejoice in the progress that has been made in the direction of unification, and confidently look to its final consummation at no distant date.

(Signed) M. T. PLYLER, Chairman,
C. W. BATES, Secretary.

REPORT OF BOARD OF MANAGERS OF NORTH CAROLINA PASTORS' SCHOOL

The 1935 Pastors' School met at Duke University, June 10-21, running simultaneous with the Institute of International Relations, sponsored by the American Friends Service Committee and Duke University, and the Rural Church Institute, conducted under the auspices of Duke University and the leading representatives of eight denominations. There were a profitable interchange of privileges. The program of courses and addresses was of high order, and together with the other institutes, attracted a larger number of people to the Duke University campus than any previous series of institutes have been able to do. The attendance in the Pastors' School was 364. The schedule of the 1935 school was so arranged as to provide for some of the courses to run the first week of the school and another set the second week, rather than for all the courses to run through the period of two weeks.

It is expected that the same plan of co-operation with the two above-named institutes will be carried out in 1936 as in 1935.

REPORT OF RURAL CHURCH COMMITTEE

Your Rural Church Committee recommends to our Bishop and his cabinet that they give much time, thought and prayer, to the grouping of the rural churches of the Conference, taking into consideration (a) the number of individuals to be served, (b) the possibility of increasing the number of self-sustaining charges, and definitely pointing out charges where this will not be immediately possible, (c) the observance of community boundaries in such grouping, (d) and the value of grouping churches in contiguous towns and country areas under the leadership of one preacher, assisted by one or more junior preachers.

It is also recommended to the Bishop and his Cabinet that in making appointments to rural charges, they make definite effort to "fit the man to the place," and keep him on the charge for a period of years.

It is recommended that an adequate salary be provided by the charge observing (a) the approved elements of a good financial program (budget, every-member canvass, systematic giving, with the envelope system), (b) the need of informing the people about the budget (how to raise, for what use, and the progress in securing the money), and (c) a quarterly balancing of the budget. Let there be meetings of the charge Board or Stewards under the leadership of the charge Lay Leader one week before each Quarterly Conference to this end. In those cases where it is necessary for the Board of Missions to supplement salaries, let it be upon the basis of service rendered, by providing travel expenses for the minister, and providing him with the opportunities to read, study, and continue to grow, without cost to him, and, in all cases providing for an adequate livelihood.

We recommend that the Board of Missions direct their appropriations in such a manner as to inspire the local charges to their best effort, beginning this system in the already studied charges in the Marion and Mount Airy Districts.

We recommend further, the following program of objectives and activities for the Conference and charges:

I. PROMOTIONS

1. Rural church program at the next Annual Conference.
2. Request that the North Carolina Christian Advocate give space for presentation of material on Rural Church and Community Life.
3. We recommend the publication of the report of "The Fact Finding Committee" of the "Rural Church Commission" of the General Conference. (Prepared under the Chairmanship of Prof. J. M. Ormond.)
4. We recommend the use of all available agencies for rural betterment, such as the National Farm and Home Hour radio program, the national and local Grange, extension departments of agricultural colleges, 4-H Clubs, etc.

II. LAY ACTIVITY

1. Let there be regular monthly meetings of all official Boards conducted in a business like way.
2. Lay meetings in churches.

III. CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

1. Continuous training program sponsored by Conference Board of Christian Education. (a) Cokesbury Schools. (b) One and two day institutes sponsored by the presiding elder, and participated in by district staff members, Conference Board workers, and workers of the Woman's Missionary Society. (c) Representation from country churches in summer assemblies.
2. Use of Vacation Church Schools, Church School Day, Missionary Education, Childhood and Youth Week, Young People's Anniversary and other special occasions.
3. Improve the organization of the church school under unified plan.
4. Every church school using Methodist literature.
5. Co-operation between the Board of Missions and the Board of Christian Education in providing trained workers for service in districts not reached by Standard training schools.
6. Courses for rural ministers at Pastors' School and continued co-operation between Pastors' School and the Rural Church Institute.

IV. EVANGELISM AND CHURCH RELATIONSHIP

1. Endorse program as stated in our Conference minutes for 1934 (page 49, section 5).
2. Special effort to reach transient people (members and non-members).
3. Use the resources of our church in preparing children for church membership.
4. Frequent contact with the entire membership by the pastor, Evangelistic Committee, church school workers, charge papers, letters, and otherwise.
5. Preservation of accurate records for church and church school.

Following the study of the country church in our Conference during the past year, we see large possibilities for the usefulness of such a committee as ours, and, therefore, recommend that the Bishop appoint an independent Rural Church Commission, to serve for the remainder of this quadrennium, composed of one preacher from each district, five laymen, and one presiding elder.

(Signed) MRS. L. E. BROWN, Chairman,
GEO. W. CLAY, Secretary.

FINAL REPORT OF THE JOINT COMMISSION ON CHURCH BUILDING AT CHAPEL HILL

In the report of the Board of Missions, made to the North Carolina Conference at its session in 1919, was this paragraph: "M. T. Plyler and A. D. Wilcox have been appointed to meet with a Committee from the Western North Carolina Conference to study the situation at Chapel Hill and to recommend a policy for the future of our church there."

At the session of the Conference in 1921, in accepting the report of the Joint Commission, the Board of Missions recommended the following resolution:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Board that the time has come when we must face the problem of retaining our hold upon the life of our young people in our state educational institutions, and in order not to interfere with the previously planned program of our leaders in the church, we recommend that the Boards of Missions in the two Conferences of North Carolina contribute $20,000 each; the Church Extension Boards $10,000 each; the General Church Extension Board $20,000; the local community $20,000, and that the alumni of the University be canvassed to contribute $50,000 for the building of a Methodist Church at Chapel Hill. Whenever the above mentioned parties shall have complied by cash, or subscription, with the proposed plan, then this Board pledges itself to provide for its part of the above amount. In furtherance of this plan we recommend the continuance of this Commission on this work.

In the report of the Joint Commission to the two Conferences in 1922, to the Joint Commission composed of E. K. McLarty, R. M. Courtney, Leon Cash, J. H. Barnhardt, J. F. Shinn, for the Western North Carolina Conference, and M. T. Plyler, A. D. Wilcox, Euclid McWhorter, Walter Patten, C. T. Rodgers, from the North Carolina Conference, were added L. R. Wilson, E. W. Knight, R. L. Stroud, Clyde Eubanks and N. W. Walker, for the Chapel Hill Church. M. T. Plyler was Chairman, and R. M. Courtney, Secretary, of this Joint Commission from its organization. Each year they submitted a report to both Conferences as the work developed, getting the approval of the Conferences as they proceeded.

The report of the Joint Commission to the Conferences of 1926 began thus: "The task of building an adequate Methodist Church at Chapel Hill is practically completed."

Then followed this financial statement, giving receipts and disbursements:

The report made to the Conferences in 1928 showed that interest and other expenditures for furnishing, etc., had increased the indebtedness to $72,318.18.

In 1929, the Conferences appointed a Committee of three laymen from each Conference to perfect an organization for liquidating the debt of the Chapel Hill Church. This Committee organized with a Chairman for each of the districts of the two Conferences, but owing to the pressing financial conditions only a few hundred dollars was raised.

In 1930 the Conferences devised a plan to raise $100,000 to care for the debt on the College Place Church, Greensboro, N. C., and the debt on the Chapel Hill Church. Each Conference assumed $50,000 and apportioned this to the districts to be collected in four annual payments. M. E. Hogan, of Chapel Hill, acted as Treasurer of the fund for the Commission.

The Joint Commission on work at Chapel Hill did not submit an annual report after the Conferences took over the liquidation of this debt in 1929. Neither were there formal reports made by the laymen's Committee or the Joint Committee of the Conferences on the liquidation of the debt.

The financial obligations of the Joint Commission in 1934 are disclosed in the report of the Treasurer, M. E. Hogan, which shows all obligations have been met; a surplus of $25.87 remaining in the hands of the Treasurer. The report follows:

In submitting our final report to the Conferences, the Joint Commission offers the following recommendations:

1. That the Conferences authorize the establishment of a Wesley Foundation to aid in promoting the work of our church at Chapel Hill, and with the existing Wesley Foundation at College Place Church.

2. That a Commission of six—one from the Chapel Hill Church and one from College Place Church, and two from each of the two Conferences—be appointed by the presiding Bishop to work out the details for such foundation or foundations and report at this session of the Conferences. The Bishop shall be ex-officio member of this Commission.

3. That this Commission lend its aid in promoting the work at Chapel Hill and College Place Churches.

With our grateful thanks to all who have aided in this building enterprise at Chapel Hill, we request that with the adoption of this report we be discharged and the work of the Joint Commission end.

R. M. COURTNEY, Secretary.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY MINUTES

The annual meeting of the Historical Society of the Western North Carolina Conference was held in First Methodist Church, Salisbury, at 3:00 p. m., Friday, October 25, 1935. Dr. E. K. McLarty, President of the Society, was in the chair.

The opening devotional service was begun with the congregational singing of Hymn 256 (New Methodist Hymnal), "Faith of Our Fathers." Prayer was offered by Dr. S. B. Turrentine. After a special musical selection rendered by the church choir, Dr. McLarty led the congregation in the First Responsive Reading, page 601 of the New Hymnal.

On motion of Dr. A. W. Plyler, the Society instructed the President to appoint a Committee on nominations of officers for the coming year. The Committee appointed consisted of Rev. A. W. Plyler, Rev. J. W. Moore, and Rev. J. P. Hipps. This Committee retired for consultation and later returned with the report.

Dr. McLarty presented the speaker of the hour, Rev. William L. Sherrill, veteran Secretary of the Conference, who delivered a most informing and inspiring address on the subject, "Growth of the Church in Lincoln County." A key sentence of this address was the statement that "From the country church we get seed corn that makes the nation great." The address illustrated this principle by short biographical sketches of the fathers of the church in Lincoln County.

Dr. McLarty gave special expression of thanks to Brother Sherrill for this interesting message, and then called for the report of the Nominating Committee, which follows: recommended for President, Dr. S. B. Turrentine; for Vice-President, Dr. Paul N. Garber; for Secretary-Treasurer, Rev. Wilbur G. McFarland; for Executive Committee, Rev. C. M. Pickens, Rev. W. L. Sherrill, and Dr. A. W. Plyler. The report was adopted by the Society, and the above named were declared the officers of the Historical Society for the coming year.

An offering amounting to $31.00 was taken and this sum was paid the Advocate Publishing Company, of Greensboro, on account for printing.

The Society adjourned with the benediction by Brother Sherrill.

WILBUR G. MCFARLAND, Secretary.

MINUTES OF THE CONFERENCE BROTHERHOOD

The Western North Carolina Conference Brotherhood met in twenty-seventh annual session at the First Methodist Church, Salisbury, N. C., October 25, 1935, at 4:30 p. m., with W. L. Sherrill, President, in the chair. The hymn, "How Firm a Foundation," was sung. Rev. J. W. Moore led the Brotherhood in prayer. The minutes of the last annual meeting were read and, without objection, they were approved.

The President appointed the following Nominating Committee: Brothers J. P. Hipps, A. W. Plyler, and R. S. Howie. The President requested that the Committee not nominate him to succeed himself, expressing the opinion and the desire that younger men should assume the responsibilities of carrying on the Brotherhood work. The Committee retired.

C. C. Herbert, Jr., Assistant Secretary and Treasurer, submitted the following report: Six of the members of the Brotherhood have died during the past year: Brothers J. C. Richardson, J. E. Womack, E. J. Poe, C. A. Johnson, R. G. Tuttle, and J. W. Campbell. To the beneficiary of Brother Richardson $1,200 has been paid. To the beneficiaries of Brother Womack, Poe, Johnson, and Tuttle, $700 in each case has been paid. There is on hand approximately $2,400. It is confidently expected that the collections at Conference of assessments will permit the payment of $1,200 to all beneficiaries. On motion the report was adopted.

Brother J. P. Hipps submitted the report of the Nominating Committee as follows: H. G. Allen, President; R. C. Goforth, Vice-President; C. M. Pickens, Secretary and Treasurer; C. C. Herbert, Jr., Assistant Secretary and Treasurer; H. C. Sprinkle and E. M. Jones, members of the Executive Committee. The report was adopted and these officers were declared elected.

It was moved that the Executive Committee be authorized and requested to use every possible means during the Conference and throughout the year to increase both the clerical and the lay membership of the Brotherhood. The motion carried.

The meeting adjourned with the benediction.

(Signed) WILLIAM L. SHERRILL, President,
C. C. HERBERT, JR., Assistant Secretary and Treasurer.

JAMES WILLIAM CAMPBELL

Rev. James William Campbell, son of P. L. and Evelyn Potts Campbell, was born in Catawba County on September 30, 1869, and died September 25, 1935, almost instantly, from injuries sustained in a railway train-automobile collision on a grade crossing near Stoneville, that same day.

In early youth he moved with his parents to Haywood County. There, among those rugged hills, the influence of which may account for many worthy traits in his character, he grew to manhood. It was in this county, too, which he liked to call home, that he attended public schools and graduated from Clyde Institute at Clyde, N. C.

On July 10, 1892, he was married to Miss Lillie Ethel Moody. This union stood beautifully all the tests of life, both conjugal and itinerant, till a break came in the death of Mrs. Campbell at Walnut Cove, on January 16, 1930. The walk thereafter, for five years, was a somewhat lonely and wistful walk for Brother Campbell.

To Brother and Sister Campbell were born six children, four of whom survive: Mrs. J. F. Wallas, Asheville; Mrs. R. M. Hundley, Draper; Mrs. Vernon Cashatt, Denton; and one son, Willis Campbell of Walnut Cove. There are also four grandchildren: Nancy and Lynda Campbell, Robert and James William Hundley.

The pioneer spirit, which characterized early Methodism, was evident in the life of James Campbell. It was no easy matter for a poor mountain boy to climb from his native rock bound hills to a place of commanding influence in the progress of a great church. It may be that he bore to the last, marks of this struggle in his body, but if so, thank God, they were all scars of honor.

After being admitted on trial into the Western North Carolina Conference in 1898, he walked breast forward, in the militant ranks of the Methodist ministry, for thirty-seven years. As one called of God he received ordination to the office of deacon in 1899, by Bishop R. K. Hargrove, and was ordained elder by Bishop A. Coke Smith in 1903. And with never a backward look he served thirteen charges: Highland Circuit, 1898-1900; Andrews, 1900-01; Cane Creek Circuit, 1901-02; Bald Creek Circuit, 1902-04; Leicester Circuit, 1904-08; Sulphur Springs Circuit, 1908-12; Biltmore, 1912-15; Bryson City, 1915-19; Draper, 1919-22; Linwood Circuit, 1922-26; East Spencer, 1926-27; Walnut Cove, 1927-31; Stoneville-Mayodan, 1931 till September 25, 1935. Six of these charges he served four years each; and the average salary he received during his entire ministry was $1,019, the salaries ranging from $200 to $1,900. But the size of this man's salary could not rightly be used as a gauge to estimate his worth; for his life was rich in God's great intangibles.

Brother Campbell was well prepared for the character of ministry to which his life was given. Though not college bred, he had in a marked degree the faculty of close observation which insures a rich mental endowment. His preaching was without ostentation but ever with force and effectiveness; for he loved the simple Saxon words understood and loved by his hearers. The dead aim of all his preaching was the salvation of souls. That he did not miss his mark, the mere fact that his yearly average of accessions on profession of faith was twenty, is sufficient witness.

His life was clean and wholesome. No stain was ever found upon his vesture. For 37 times he heard his brethren say, "Nothing against him." If he ever held aught against any of his brethren no word of it seemed to pass from his lips. His conversation was as pure as the morning dew. He took his appointments at the hand of his Bishop in the spirit of humility, and discharged his duty without bitterness or complaint.

Brother Campbell did not seek popularity for its own sake, but he was always popular. He was loved because he was lovable. In him were met and blended those enduring qualities to which the human heart clings as vine to trellis. In his attractiveness there was found no element of weakness. He was strong because his life turned upon the pole of truth and moved upon the plain of charity. He was courageous and militant in his warfare against evil in the church and out of it. But he loved men. He loved his brethren of the ministry. We miss him in this Annual Conference; we shall miss him for years to come.

On Thursday morning at 10:00 o'clock, September 26, in the presence of a large group of ministerial brethren and many other friends, the funeral was conducted from Stoneville Methodist Church by his presiding elder, Rev. A. C. Gibbs, assisted by Rev. W. H. Willis and Rev. W. O. Goode. The following day, Friday, he was buried by the side of the grave of his wife in Acton Church Cemetery under the kindly ministrations of his lifelong friend, Rev. T. A. Groce.

There, guarded by the towering hills he loved so well, he sleeps. These hills had been an inspiration to his youth, and had been his companion and guide through happy days of recreation as he strolled with rod and gun. Surrounded by these old comrades his sleep should be sweet; for the coverlids of the home soil will touch him tenderly as they fold around him and tuck him in for the night.

"Here he lies where he longed to be;
Home is the sailor, home from sea,
And the hunter home from the hill."

A. C. GIBBS.

MARCUS WALRAVEN DARGAN

Marcus Walraven Dargan, son of Eli and Virginia Dargan, was born at Goldsboro, N. C., August 31, 1868. Most of his youthful days were spent at Snow Hill, Greene County; and it was in the high school there that he started the diligent search for truth which characterized his entire career, for he was a student all his days.

Very early in his life Brother Dargan manifested a keen interest in things spiritual; for he was much in demand as a young singer of religious hymns, worked as Sunday school superintendent when a mere stripling, and felt a distinct urge to preach when eighteen years of age. He joined the North Carolina Conference at Rocky Mount in 1906, in which connection he served acceptably and faithfully the following appointments: Straits, 1906-08; Dover, 1908-12; Windsor, 1912-13; Princeton, 1913-14; Battleboro and Whitakers, 1914-16; Fuquay Springs, 1916-18; Poplar Branch, 1918-19. In the fall of 1919 he transferred to the Western North Carolina Conference and his splendid record here is familiar to many of us: Candler, 1919-20; Weaverville Circuit, 1920-21; Flat Rock-Fletcher, 1921-24; Old Fort, 1924-26; Belmont, 1926-27. Superannuated in the fall of 1927, he moved to Black Mountain, where for years he made his happy stay, still active in the Master's cause and a blessing to the community at large.

All the pastorates mentioned above were marked with building enterprise and repair; but, best of all, many were born anew under his consecrated leadership. His last charge was Belmont. Eighty people were won for Christ that year.

A cerebral hemorrhage and a slight stroke of paralysis threw this active life into second gear; and so, by the physician's order, he superannuated and moved to Black Mountain; but he kept on driving toward the things that really count. A few hours before his death he attended a special service at the Methodist Church along with the other members of the Junior Order brotherhood, encouraged the minister with his appreciative remarks at the close of the service, and upon his arrival at home, told his wife that he planned to attend church in the morning. He did go to church, the church triumphant, where sermons are clearer and music sweeter; for at 2:15 a. m. Marcus Dargan closed his eyes to this life and opened them to the larger life of the upper room. That was the morning of September 17, 1935. His wife, two of her sisters, a neighbor, the doctor and his wife were the only ones present at the house when his spirit passed on. No, that's not the whole fact, for God was there, marking the passage with Christian serenity.

July 10, 1901, Brother Dargan was happily married to Miss Mary Graham Wall, of Lilesville, N. C. She has proved herself a genuine co-laborer under God.

We all loved him and appreciated his strong character. The Black Mountain Council, Number 145, Junior Order of United American Mechanics, had this statement in a preamble to their resolution of respect for him, "Whereas, it has pleased the Almighty to remove from our midst, by death, our esteemed friend and brother, Rev. M. W. Dargan, who has for many years occupied a prominent rank in our midst, maintaining under all circumstances a character untarnished and a reputation above reproach." And that was the start of the good things said of him.

Having been his pastor for three years I deem it a privilege to say that he was a man who kept the Christian spirit of youthfulness and good humor down to the end of his earthly sojourn. He was outstanding in the virtue of love and in the tonic of geniality toward all men; and naturally in his last days he was more than conqueror, for life did not close in on him—he moved up unafraid.

THOMAS FULTON GLENN

Thomas Fulton Glenn, son of Eli and Massinda Starnes Glenn, was born in Buncombe County, North Carolina, December 18, 1837. He was a graduate of the famous Sand Hill Academy.

His wife was Miss Mary Stephens. To them six children were born. A son died in infancy and two children, Eugene and Mary, died after reaching adult life. Three daughters survive. They are Mrs. John H. Dills, Wheeler, Washington; Mrs. S. G. McEllreth, Asheville; and Miss Annie Glenn, Asheville.

In 1857 he was received on trial into the Holston Conference in session at Marion, Va. He was not yet twenty years of age. He served the following charges: Abingdon, Va., 1857-58; Jasper, Tenn., 1859; Ducktown, 1860; Cleveland Station, 1861; Chaplain Third Confederate Cavalry, First Brigade, Fourth Division (Wheeler's Corps Army of Tennessee), 1862-64; Waynesville Circuit, 1865-67; Franklin Circuit, 1868-70; Hayesville Circuit, 1871; Presiding Elder, Franklin District, 1872-73; Maryville Circuit, 1874; Sweetwater Circuit, 1875-76; Kingston Circuit, 1877-79; Charleston Circuit, 1880; Blountville, 1881-84; Pearisburg, 1885-88; Newbern (Va.), 1889-90; Lebanon (Va.), 1891; Auburn (Va.), 1892; Bland Street, Knoxville, and Editor The Holston Methodist, 1893; Editor The Holston Methodist, 1894-96; transferred to the Western North Carolina Conference and appointed to the Leicester Circuit, 1897; Macon Circuit, 1898-99; Jonathan Circuit, 1900-01; Clyde Circuit, 1902; and superannuate, 1903-1935. For several years prior to 1893 Dr. Glenn was Associate Editor of The Holston Methodist and wrote most of the editorials.

Dr. Glenn served in the active ministry forty-five years. It is stated that, appointed to the Waynesville Circuit at the close of the Civil War, he saved our church in that section of the state. Brother Glenn was a builder of character and church property. It is said that he always left the church property in much better condition than it was when he came.

Superannuation for him did not mean that he would quit. He had a clear mind and liked to write. As during his active ministry, he now continued to write on moral and religious topics for both church and secular periodicals. For some years he had a weekly column in the Asheville Times on "Short Talks on Great Subjects"; and he was a regular contributor to Christian Work, a Presbyterian publication in New York.

For six years Dr. Glenn taught the Glenn Bible Class in the West Asheville Methodist Church. As long as he was physically able he was a regular attendant at the services of this church, and often filled the pulpit. On October 2, 1932, he and the West Asheville Church observed the 75th anniversary of his entrance into the ministry. He preached on this occasion and his subject was: "The Ministry of Angels."

Brother Glenn loved children and they loved him. He also appreciated the great hymns of the church. It was the writer's privilege to be with him on his last birthday. As was his custom, before parting, he wanted all present to join him in singing. He led in singing, "Rock of Ages." His voice was weak but clear and sweet. He had unfaltering faith in God and in the power of the Gospel to save.

A true father, a Christian gentleman and minister, and a saint has traveled this way 97 years, two months, and one day, and has gone Home. He went to his Father's house Tuesday, February 19, 1935. What a blessing he has been to all who knew him! His influence for good and God can never die.

The funeral services were held in the West Asheville Methodist Church and were in charge of his pastor, Rev. E. H. Nease. The following assisted in the services: Reverends J. S. Hiatt, Robert Turnbull, L. W. Colson, W. B. West, C. C. Weaver, and J. B. McLarty. His body was interred by the grave of his wife in the cemetery at Clyde, N. C.

EDWARD JASPER POE

After an illness of two months, the Reverend Edward Jasper Poe, at midnight, Sunday, March 3, 1935, made triumphant entry into the city of God. Stricken with paralysis while in his regular place at public worship on January 6, Brother Poe was taken to his home in Thomasville, where, despite medical skill and devoted care, he failed to rally. Beside him at the end was his heroic wife, who had gallantly helped him in the rich but difficult labors of 39 itinerant years, two children, his pastor, and neighbors beloved. The funeral service was conducted from the Main Street Methodist Church of Thomasville on Tuesday afternoon, March 5, by Revs. R. Dwight Ware, R. S. Howie, P. E. Parker, and W. L. Hutchins. Interment was in the Thomasville City Cemetery.

Brother Poe was born April 21, 1864, in Chatham County, the son of W. S. and Mariah Poe. At the age of 14 he was converted and joined the Methodist Church. Feeling definitely the call to preach, he prepared himself for the ministry by attending the old Salem School in Randolph County when it was taught by the famed Dr. York, and by years of painstaking study in Trinity College and Vanderbilt University.

December 4, 1895, he was married to Mittie Cranford of Montgomery County, the sister of Dr. W. I. Cranford of Duke University. Besides his wife, he is survived by the following children: Edward, Jr., of Birmingham, Ala.; Charles Cranford, of Lyburn, W. Va.; Mary Theresa, a member of the faculty of State Teachers' College, Hattiesburg, Miss.; Mrs. G. H. Shutt, Jr., of Advance; Henry Martyn, of Thomasville; and Mrs. B. D. Harrill, of Columbia, S. C.; and by six grandchildren; and by one brother, L. H. Poe, a local preacher, of Hickory.

Forty-five years, 41 of them in unbroken active service, Brother Poe served various Committees and Boards of the Conference and the following charges: Jackson Hill, 1889-91; Kernersville, 1892-94; Mt. Island Station, 1895; Bakersville, 1896; Mills River, 1897-98; Jackson Hill, 1899; Wentworth, 1900; Pleasant Garden, 1901-02; Liberty, 1903; Alexander, 1904-07; Lilesville, 1908-09; Matthews, 1910; Morganton Circuit, 1911; Connelly Springs-Rutherford College, 1912-13; Walnut Cove, 1914-15; New London, 1916-17; Woodleaf, 1918-19; Haywood, 1920-21; Weddington, 1922; Albemarle Circuit, 1923; Rutherford College, 1924; Bostic, 1925-26; Old Fort Station, 1927; Statesville Circuit, 1928; Dudley Shoals, 1929-30. In all these years he never took a vacation. In 1930 he was granted the superannuate relation, and since then had made his home in Thomasville.

Brother Poe was among his people and among his brethren a noble man of God. Quiet, industrious, unassuming—his studious ways and his kindly ministry made him greatly beloved. The rush of the world found him meditative, bent on choice accumulations of devotional life. Each day he faithfully and appreciatively read his Greek New Testament and reasoned on the beauties of truth and charm of life's deep coursing streams. Each day he moved among his people, carrying to them a wealth of love and gathering from them more of the same. Brother Poe never sought for himself the honors of the world—content was he in the hard work of the Master—yet in his death all of Thomasville and regions beyond look upon his life as one crammed with loveliness, spent in helpfulness and blessed with the honors of a brighter world.

JOEL COLUMBUS RICHARDSON

Rev. Joel Columbus Richardson, son of A. M. and Jane Blaylock Richardson, was born near Mocksville in Davie County on December 5, 1858.

On July 11, 1882, he was married to Miss Asenath Isabel Ward, whose people had come from England to North Carolina. Their only child is Miss Lizzie Anne Richardson, who now lives with her mother at Rutherford College, N. C.

As a young boy J. C. Richardson attended the schools near his home in Davie County, two of them being Calahan Institute and the Mocksville Normal. After taking training in these institutions, he taught school for five years.

When the conviction entered his breast that he was called to preach the Gospel, he sold his home, in order that he might pay his expenses, while preparing still further for the work of the ministry, at Fairview College, which was first located at Traphill, N. C., and later moved to Washington, N. C., and called Collegiate Institute. After four years' work at Fairview College and Collegiate Institute, he entered the Blue Ridge Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1894 and remained a member of that Conference for fifteen years. He was ordained a deacon in 1899 and an elder in 1903. In the Blue Ridge Conference, his appointments were as follows: Traphill, 1894-99; Davie, 1899-1901; Chandler, 1901-02; Yadkin, 1902-03; supernumerary, 1903-04; and Yadkin, 1904-09.

In 1909, at the session of our Conference at Hickory, with Bishop James Atkins presiding, Brother Richardson was received as a traveling elder from the Methodist Episcopal Church. During his membership in our Conference, his appointments were as follows: Pilot Mountain, 1909-11; supernumerary, 1911-13; Green River, 1913-14; Thermal City, 1914-15; supernumerary, 1915-19; Junior Preacher, Main Street, Thomasville, 1919-20; South and East Thomasville, 1920-23; Rosman, 1923-27; superannuate, 1927-34.

During the fifteen years he was in the Blue Ridge Conference, he served actively for fourteen years, with one year in the supernumerary relation. During the twenty-five years he was with the Western North Carolina Conference, he served actively for twelve years, with six years in the supernumerary and seven years in the superannuate relation. During the forty years of his ministerial life, he rendered twenty-six years of active service, fourteen in the Blue Ridge Conference and twelve in ours. Whenever he had to take the supernumerary relation, it was because his physician commanded him to rest.

He was converted in his early teens. Immediately thereafter he joined the New Union Methodist Episcopal Church, which was located near his old home. He liked to talk about his Christian experience. His friends say that he had Bible religion and that he knew he had been born again. He believed that Jesus Christ can save sinners. He had a profound faith in the power of the Gospel when faithfully and earnestly preached.

Consequently, he rendered acceptable service, both as preacher and pastor, wherever he was sent. While he was retiring and modest in disposition, he never failed to be firm, faithful, and loyal to the principles and ideals of our Lord and Savior, whenever he stepped into the pulpit. Some of his old church members have written me that his sermons were carefully prepared, plain, short, helpful, and full of love for his Master.

Whenever he invited any pastor to do the preaching during a revival meeting, he was untiring in his work with the prospects who were in the congregation and with the penitents who were at the altar.

As a pastor, he visited his members, both the active and the inactive ones. His members still say that he gave comfort and good cheer to the sick. He was always clean and chaste in his conversations. He noticed and loved the children and received from them their love in return. Not long ago a member of the Baptist Church at Rosman said this: "We dearly loved Mr. Richardson. When we were all in bed and quarantined, he visited us daily. He brought us food, milk, and comfort, when others failed." During the helpful pastoral visits which he made, his old parishioners now recall that one of his favorite expressions was this: "Praise the Lord!"

Wherever he lived, the brethren now say that he was always a Christian gentleman and very much interested in his work. One preacher writes that Brother Richardson was seemingly always in a hurry. His energy, good judgment, and modesty were easily observable characteristics. Because of his sterling character and his lovable disposition, it is no surprise at all that his congregations loved and trusted him.

When it comes to brick and mortar, perhaps Brother Richardson's most important service was the building of Trinity Church in Thomasville. Mrs. Richardson has written me that my own father requested the Bishop and presiding elder to send Brother Richardson to South Thomasville, in order that he might lead in a movement to erect Trinity Church in East Thomasville. During his first year there, the church was organized, with eighteen members, in a cottage. Before the end of the year, the church, a modern brick building and valued at $14,000, was opened for worship.

Brother Richardson's influence on others can be easily imagined, by reading the following words from one of our presiding elders: "I overtook Brother Richardson on the highway of life, just as the sun of his active ministry was going down in the west; but I found that the rays of the morning had not died out of his soul. As I walked a little way with him into that sunset I experienced a radiance, a mellowness, a beauty, that caused my heart to 'burn within me'. I shall make the journey into my own sunset with just a bit steadier step because of this brief companionship by the way."

During the most of his seven superannuate years at Rutherford College, his work did not stop. He helped to gather materials for the new church building there and lived to see it finished. The last sermon that he preached was in that church. During the closing ten months of his life, he experienced frequent and intense suffering. Many times during those days he would say tenderly to his beloved wife and daughter: "I am ready to go. My one regret is having to leave you." His pastor, who visited him often during those days of suffering, says that he always found him cheerful in heart and seemingly sustained by his Christian faith.

He died in Davis Hospital, Statesville, on December 12, 1934. On the next day the funeral service was held in the Methodist Church at Rutherford College. His body was buried in the nearby Mountain View Cemetery. Peace to his ashes! Immortality to his soul!

W. A. LAMBETH.

ROBERT GAMEWELL TUTTLE

Robert Gamewell Tuttle, the son of Benedict Marcus and Mary Cochrane Tuttle, was born at Hartland, Caldwell County, North Carolina, February 2, 1872, and died in the parsonage of Main Street Church, Belmont, June 11, 1935, aged 63 years, four months and nine days. He was educated in the county schools, Barnes' Boy's School at Lenoir, Trinity College, Vanderbilt University. His religious training was given in a Christian home and in a country church. In this home was maintained a family altar; the Bible and other religious literature were always in evidence; preachers of all denominations, especially Methodist and Baptist, were frequently entertained. His father was a stalwart, positive Christian character, and while his mother was more reserved, her religious influence was none the less pervasive.

It was only a short distance from his home to Littlejohn's Church where he attended all the church services regularly. In this church he was converted and received into church membership. Here he preached his first sermon. It is worthy of note that out of this church have gone sixteen preachers and one missionary (his sister, Miss Lelia Judson Tuttle), and five other preachers whose parents attended this church in their youth. His home, his church and other influences contributed to the development of his character, but by the grace of God he developed his own character and lived his own life. He was a preacher of the Gospel because he was called of God to preach. He felt very keenly his responsibility as a preacher, and did his work conscientiously. His sermons were well prepared and faithfully and tenderly delivered.

He was admitted into the Western North Carolina Conference in 1895. For thirty-nine years he preached and lived the Gospel of Jesus. One of his favorite texts was, "Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus." The last sermon he preached in his old home church was on the text, "And a man shall be as an hiding place from the wind, and a covert from the tempest; as rivers of water in a dry place; as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land." Those who knew him best, know that he illustrated these and other sermons by the life that he lived. He lived the Gospel he preached.

He served the following charges: McKendree, 1896-97; Henderson Circuit, 1898-99; Dilworth, Charlotte, 1900-02; Matthews, 1903-05; Brevard, 1906-09; Elkin, 1910-13; Central, Albemarle, 1914-16; Asheville District, 1917-18; Main Street, Thomasville, 1919-22; Centenary, Greensboro, 1923-26; Coburn Memorial, Salisbury, 1927; Newton, 1928-30; Leaksville, 1931-34. At the Conference in 1934 he was assigned to Main Street, Belmont. He entered upon his work with great joy, and in a short time had won his way into the hearts of the members of the congregation. He was looking forward to the work in his new field with happy anticipations when unexpectedly he was prostrated with a deadly malady. All was done that could be done to stay the effects of the disease, but to no avail. Through months of suffering the outward man was failing, but not the inward man. Those traits of character, faith, hope, love, tenderness, consideration of others that had beamed with a steady radiance through the years seemed to shine even more brightly as he neared the end.

Brother Tuttle was very happy in his marriage to Janie Gregory which took place August 20, 1902. She preceded him to the heavenly home by almost ten years. To them were born three children, Emily, Robert G., Jr., and Miriam. All the children were with him in his last days. He had the satisfaction of having Robert G., Jr., take up his work at Main Street, Belmont, when he was compelled to lay it down. In addition to the children Brother Tuttle is survived by three brothers, Rev. D. H. Tuttle, Smithfield; J. M. Tuttle, Lenoir; and G. A. Tuttle, Lenoir; four sisters, Mrs. G. M. Goforth, Mrs. M. T. Sigmon, and Mrs. Albert Corpening, of Lenoir, and Miss Lelia Judson Tuttle, of Soochow, China; one grandchild, Betty Jane Tuttle, of Belmont, and a great host of relatives and friends.

The funeral was conducted from Main Street Church, Belmont, by Rev. J. S. Hiatt, Dr. C. C. Weaver, Rev. M. F. Moores, and Rev. R. M. Courtney. His body was laid to rest by the side of the grave of his wife in the cemetery in Greensboro.

JOSEPH EDGAR WOMACK

Joseph Edgar Womack, son of Anderson and Margaret McGinnis Womack, was born in Polk County, North Carolina, March 18, 1882. His childhood and youth were spent there. When he was only five years old his father died, leaving the responsibility of placing his young feet in the path of rectitude to Christ and his mother. Later years proved that these two did their work well.

In his school and early college life he was preparing himself, as he had purposed, for a career as a lawyer; but God had other plans. After a struggle, in his twenties he yielded to the will of Jesus and became His ambassador, exchanging his own plans for those of the Christ. Thus he spent the last twenty-six of his fifty-two years in presenting the Gospel from the pulpit.

He studied at Rutherford College and then at Wofford to get the best preparation available for practicing law. When the call to preach took possession of him he labored even more incessantly to get a thorough preparation for this work.

During his junior year at Wofford his eyes were temporarily wrecked by a bad case of measles. Later when he had fully recovered the use of his eyes and had joined the Western North Carolina Conference, he finished his work and took his degree at Emory and Henry College in Virginia. His education acquainted him so well with the field of thought of his time that he had one of the best libraries among the ministers of his Conference.

His admission into the traveling ministry of the Western North Carolina Conference was at Asheville in 1908. During his membership there he served the following charges: Fines Creek, Thermal City, Broad River, Coleridge, Macon, Watauga, Jamestown-Oakdale Station, Pleasant Garden, Biltmore Station, Morven.

In the early autumn of 1910 he married Miss Minnie DeHart, of Bryson City. For these last twenty-four years the two have been a power for God and the right in every place they have been sent.

Brother Womack's family life, his social relationships and his pulpit were interwoven in his ministry. The fundamental article of his creed was obedience to the Master and love for his fellowman. Innate and irrepressible honesty forced him to be sincere under any and all circumstances. An insatiate love for study took him into a wide field for his conclusions. He was always entertaining to his friends and associates, and his communication profitable and elevating.

Congeniality in wit and innocent mirth was one of his striking traits. So forceful was his consciousness of the right that it seemed always to keep him poised and in a pleasant mood. This freedom from guile not only kept a smile on his face but also gave him weight in favor of the right when it was opposed, and it made a warm place for him in the innermost central recess of the heart of every man who stands for the truth. He was one sincere and honest man. He suffered in many ways but never from the sting of conscience for paltering with his duty for popularity or place. His father and mother both were of sturdy Scotch lineage and their son did no dishonor to the race of John Knox.

Notwithstanding what has been written, his strong forte was his pulpit. His sermons were thoroughly prepared, and were rich in thought and impressive language. Wherever he went the congregations spoke of his preaching in the highest terms. His manner, his voice, and his material were well combined for impressively presenting truth. Everywhere he was heard, people considered him an outstanding preacher.

Brother Womack's field held great opportunities, and he used them with telling effect. His itinerancy carried him to every part of his Conference. In all, the Gospel was put forth with great power through his character and his preaching. His work fell in rich fields and produced an abundant harvest.

His friends would have been glad for him to remain here so long as they, but he finished his course and went on to receive his crown of righteousness. The going was as he desired. He laid off his armor one evening to rest for the night and awoke next morning with his Captain.

J. S. FOLGER.

Mrs. Mary (Brown) McLarty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Louis Brown, was born in Hillsboro, N. C., March 30, 1874; married to the Rev. E. K. McLarty in 1904, and passed to her eternal reward at Shelby, N. C., on January 6, 1935. Mrs. McLarty was cultured and consecrated, an helpmeet indeed to her husband and was the mother of three sons who give promise of great usefulness in the service of the church.

* * * *

Mrs. Nancy Adela (Brown) Rowe, daughter of Jacob and Eliza Brown, of Rowan County, was born July 11, 1853; was married to the Rev. Joseph C. Rowe, March 2, 1872. She gladly shared the toil and privation incident to the pastoral work of her husband and the full measure of her devotion bore her beyond her power of endurance but sustained her in long hours of suffering until her death, January 10, 1935. She was the mother of six children, one of whom, the Rev. Dr. Gilbert T. Rowe, is a professor in Duke University.

* * * *

Mrs. Elmer Simpson, widow of the late Rev. Elmer Simpson, was born February 4, 1864, married in early womanhood, and after long and faithful service as the wife of an itinerant preacher she fell on sleep March 26, 1935. She was the mother of Rev. Oscar L. Simpson, of our Conference.

* * * *

Mrs. C. E. Williams, a daughter of Rev. and Mrs. James H. Green, was born at Clyde, N. C., October 6, 1908; married to Rev. E. E. Williams February 12, 1927, and died June 5, 1935. She was a good woman, a faithful wife, and gave promise of a long life in Christian service, but her health gave way and alas, too soon, she came to the end of her earthly pilgrimage.

NEW COKESBURY GOOD BOOKS

JOHN WESLEY AND MODERN RELIGION

UMPHREY LEE

Dr. Lee bases his book principally on Wesley's own works—not merely his well-known sermons and Journal, but also on his less-known writings and letters. Many traditional views concerning Wesley are challenged.

John Wesley and Modern Religion will gain quick and wide recognition as the authoritative work on the subject. Unlike most modern treatments of Wesley, it is not seeking to find in him a fore-runner of some modern movement; it is not biased. Above all it is warmly human, intensely interesting, and of timely importance to all who are interested in contemporary religious thought. $2.50

TWENTY YEARS WITH BILLY SUNDAY

HOMER RODEHEAVER

Here is the inside story of Billy Sunday, the evangelist who brought thousands down the "sawdust trail." It goes behind the scenes to study the man, his methods, his problems, and his successes. The secrets of his genius, the machinery of his campaigns, the organization and personnel, and even authoritative figures on his financial income are revealed. The book does more than satisfy our curiosity. It will thrill you. It will move you to tears and deep-throated laughter. Mr. Rodeheaver has caught the marching song of Billy Sunday's crusading soul! $1.00

HERE'S MONEY FOR CHURCHES AND SOCIETIES

WILLIAM H. LEACH

The book was prepared with but one objective. It aims to help the thousands of organizations seeking to maintain decent financial programs during these troublesome times. The volume radiates optimism, for it shows the successful plans of those which have refused to accept defeat. In those churches and societies, when financial pressure became most severe and acute, ingenuity came to the rescue and new plans of finance were projected. Here they are described in detail. From them, all ministers and leaders cannot fail to get immediate, workable ideas, for the number and variety of the plans are amazing. There are ideas in abundance for women's and young people's societies. $1.00

MAKING FRIENDS WITH LIFE

JAMES REID

Making Friends With Life takes its title from the first chapter theme, a theme carried throughout the book with remarkable consistency. As Dr. Reid so well puts it: "Christianity is not, as some have made it, an escape from life. It is the only means whereby in all circumstances, and whatever life may bring, it is possible to be at peace in it, and find it truly good." To that end Dr. Reid directs our thought on the problems of contemporary life and faith. All of his chapter themes are based upon Scripture texts and of those texts surprisingly fine and timely expositions are made. There is a careful grouping of much related material—the last eight chapters, for instance, comprising as fine an interpretation of the Twenty-third Psalm as may be found anywhere. $2.00

CAN WE REPEAT THE CREED?

TEUNIS E. GOUWENS

The introductory sermon, Things Hard to Doubt, sets forth the Apostles' Creed in its ancient and modern church setting; shows that the bulk of the Creed is readily accepted by professing Christians; and gives a thoughtful interpretation of the phrase, "I believe in God the Father Almighty," as one of the things hard to doubt.

Throughout Dr. Gouwens shows that only through sincere and earnest attempts to meet the honest doubts of inquiring and questioning people can there be inculcated in them an increasing appreciation of the truth, the beauty, and the meaning of the difficult phrases of the Apostles' Creed. $1.00

"Bishop, Brethren, Friends: On such a sacred occasion as this, one feels the force of Dr. Cadman's wise words when he said: 'The pulpit's glory is in the difficulty it faces when it seeks to tell men who accept the gospel that they are confederates in the immortality and the honor of God, and that they shall live forever in his boundless life and after the pattern of his Son.' This is, indeed, true since the Divine-human enterprise is so stupendous that every conscientious man would cry: 'Who is sufficient for these things?' For who can even apprehend Immortality or God? Who can comprehend 'the pattern of His Son?'

"To the natural, unaided human mind, man's life is so mysterious, its future so uncertain, its destiny so unreal! Certainly, if left to our own instincts and understandings the entire matter of the soul—its nature, relations, and issues—would constitute a fathomless enigma. As Pope said: 'Man is the glory, jest and riddle of the world.' No one seems able to offer even a definition of his life, and, regarding it, many great, worthy scholars without the Divine relation have lived and died in abyssmal ignorance. Death to them has been 'only a leap in the dark.' It is written that, 'The world by its wisdom cannot find out God.' Is it not as emphatically true that the world by its wisdom has never known man? The Divine writers ask, 'What is man?' 'What is your life?' 'Who knoweth a man but the spirit of man which is in him?' That is, each one feels God and the 'Powers of the world to come,' but he can not explain his emotions, he does not know the unseen Spirit.

"Brother Tucker tells of an old Indian squaw, who, when relating her happy Christian experience, said, 'When I was a little girl I felt Jesus in my heart, but I did not know his name till you palefaces came and told me.' Yes, men everywhere are 'feeling after God if perchance they might find Him,' for 'He hath set eternity in their hearts.' 'God hath been our dwelling place in all generations'—but, by the light of nature, men do not know the way home! In this pathetic condition all men would, with Peter, cry out to Christ: 'Lord, to whom shall we go? Thou hast the words of eternal life.' 'No man cometh unto the Father but by Him.' But, thanks be to God, 'Christ hath abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel.' And only He could do this, since only He knows, only He has come out of Eternity, lived our life, suffered our death, is risen again for our justification unto life! Hear him from beyond the grave as he shouts: 'I am he that liveth and was dead and behold I am alive forevermore,' and, 'Because I live, ye shall live also.' Then to the suffering sisters of Lazarus he exclaimed: 'I am the resurrection and the life. He that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live, and he that liveth and believeth in me shall never die.' How Divinely reassuring! And how good it is to have this glorious gospel! But, oh, how the whole world needs it! How can we selfishly enjoy it while we indifferently withhold it from two-thirds of our suffering, dying humanity?

"Besides other dear ones who have gone from us during the year, five of our choicest ministerial brethren 'in their chambers in the silent halls of death' have heard the roll call in the church triumphant! They, therefore, failed to answer, as had been their long-time custom, to their names when called in our Conference this morning! They have transferred to 'the General Assembly and Church of the First-born whose names are written in Heaven!' How blessed it must be with them today. And how unselfishly we should rejoice in their everlasting victory! Often they had read it but now they know what Jesus meant when he said: 'To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcome, and am set down with my Father in his throne.'

"How fortunate for us to have had their fellowship these many years! For they were not only loyal 'servants of the most High God,' but 'they all had the appearance of the sons of the King!' They were his noblemen and each in his own individuality gave 'the last full measure of devotion' to his Lord and his church. Not one of them ever suffered the slightest stain upon his good name, or failed in his personal or ministerial obligations. Their labors were constructive, widespread and abundant. Not one of them was a selfish place-seeker, not one was a sycophant, not one sought the plaudits of the populace or the emoluments of office. Not one of them was afflicted with the spirit of envy, jealousy or prejudice against his brethren. They greatly honored the church, loved the Brotherhood and 'served well their generation by the will of God.' Of each of them it can be sincerely recorded: 'He was a good man, full of faith and the Holy Ghost, and much people was added unto the Lord.'

"Doubtless long 'ere this they have received the most coveted compliment that ever fell from the lips of Christ—the only sentence in our language that comprehends and solves all our needs and longings, and that will satisfy forever those who hear it: 'Well done, good and faithful servant. Thou hast been faithful in a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things. Enter thou into the joy of thy Lord.' Let us meditate upon those words: How magnanimous His approval! How generous His appraisal! How beneficent His plans for improving our eternal fortunes! How infinitely gracious to share with us His Own Divine, eternal joy! And all this not simply as a prize to be awarded, but the logical, spiritual result of a life worthily lived, a career completely fulfilled, and a character forever achieved. This is Heaven!

"Under the benediction of such prospects, and with the rich inheritances which you enjoy, may you, dear friends, ever be inspired and sustained till you meet again 'those whom you have loved long since and lost awhile!'

"Then, too, brethren of the ministry and the laity, shall we not henceforth as never before, with alert minds and loyal hearts, seek to realize our opportunities, and with a consuming zeal 'finish our course with joy, and the ministry which we have received of the Lord Jesus to testify the gospel of the grace of God?' Yes, indeed, we shall each one say with Charles Wesley: 'Happy if with my latest breath I may but gasp His name. Preach Him to all and cry in death, 'Behold, behold, the Lamb'!'"

Hymn 532 was sung and the Conference adjourned at 12:45 o'clock with the benediction by S. B. Turrentine.

And, Whereas, only about 150 members out of a total membership of more than 500 in this Conference voted on the matter, and it being apparent that less than a quorum or a majority of the Conference was in session;

And, Whereas, no motion for reconsideration has been made by any member who voted with the majority on the above paragraph,

Therefore, Be It Resolved: That this Conference dispense with the rule requiring that a reconsideration of said paragraph with reference to Davenport College above referred to be moved by one who voted with the majority.

In appreciation of his magnificent and arduous labors as Director of the "Save Junaluska for the Church" campaign, by which $100,000 has been paid to remove all indebtedness from Lake Junaluska's beautiful assembly grounds, so that fee simple deed to the property is now held in the name of the church; the Western North Carolina Conference, for itself and for the church at large, extends to Dr. W. A. Lambeth deep and continuing thanks for these most splendid labors, and our hearty thanks also to all who with prayer, with offerings and with co-operating work have made this achievement so successful and so prophetic of spiritual and recreational significance.

Our thoughts shall turn back with pleasure to our two years at Salisbury and assure all who dwell in the city of our thanks, and of our prayers.

(Signed) COMMITTEE ON ENTERTAINMENT.

The following was adopted:

Whereas, the increased use of strong drink, so noticeable in athletic contests, especially football games, is not only obnoxious to many who enjoy the games but also has a tremendous influence for evil upon the youth of our state;

Therefore, we urge the colleges and universities of North Carolina to exert their influence against this evil. This might be done, it seems, by stipulating on the tickets or by other methods, the institution's right to eject from the grounds any person noticeably under the influence of liquor.

That a copy of the resolution be sent to the presidents of all our institutions.

A. THE LOCAL CHURCH

1. Promotional Features. In considering the different phases of promotional work which the staff has been carrying on so excellently we recommend the following:

(a) The continuation of the Conference School for all age group leaders at Lake Junaluska, and that our pastors urge the attendance at this school of workers in all the departments of the church.

(b) The continuation of the Christian Adventure Camps for Intermediate boys and girls.

(c) The continued promotion of the Vacation Schools. We hope that at least 150 schools might be held this Conference year.

(d) That we endeavor to secure a more general observance of Childhood and Youth Week.

(e) That we continue to provide and promote a constructive program of leadership training with the hope of ultimately reaching every church in the Conference; that we use more widely the young people's training courses which continue the Christian Culture Institutes.

(f) That we note that 553 schools did not observe Church School Day, and that we cultivate these schools looking toward a wider observance.

(g) That we urge again the use of our literature in our church schools. Special attention is called to the new publication for Intermediates, Cargo.

(h) That our preachers be urged to attend the North Carolina Pastors' School.

2. Home and Foreign Missionary Enterprise.

We believe that there is no more pressing need in our churches than the cultivation of interest in and liberality to the cause of missions. The creation of Christian attitudes toward other nations and races is an educational process, long and challenging; and it is the recognition of that fact which prompts our church to set aside one Sunday each month on which to have a missionary program and take a missionary offering. Yet the sad truth must be faced that of 837 schools in our Conference, only 240 during this year contributed to the Home and Foreign Missionary enterprise; and it is safe to presume that those which did not contribute did not have a missionary program. We strongly plead for a proper observance of Missionary Day each fourth Sunday, and for an offering to be taken in every church school.

3. Alcohol Education.

It has been stated by an experienced observer that the average college student today does not know there is an alcohol problem. He accepts the situation as it now is with regard to the sale and control of alcoholic beverages, and his training concerning their dangers has been so meager that he is entirely unaware of the existence of any problem connected with their sale and control. In view of this lack of training on the one hand, and the fact that in the last few years this great scourge of mankind has again subtly insinuated itself into every corner of our American civilization, our strategy must be that of constructive and scientific education of young and old. It is time for the church again to gird itself for a struggle to the finish. Courses for training schools and for church school elective work have been prepared by the General Board of Christian Education, setting forth in able and scientific manner the evils of alcoholic beverages. Our schools are urged to take advantage of these courses. We petition the General Assembly of North Carolina to broaden and strengthen the course of study in the public schools of the state teaching the evil effects resulting from the use of alcoholic beverages.

4. Church School Attendance. Dr. Boyd M. McKeown stated to this Board that of the estimated 39,000,000 people living in the territory embraced by our church, only 16,000,000 people are connected with any church whatever. We know that within the bounds of our Conference there are many who have no connection with any church school. Realizing this fact, two years ago our Conference, urged by the Bishop in charge, set as a goal for the ensuing year an increase of ten per cent in church school enrollment. It gives us sober pause to learn that instead of gaining ten per cent for the twelve months, we actually had a net loss. Such a condition should not prevail. There is something the matter when we fail to hold our own in enrollment when every charge has its missionary territory. To remedy such a situation your Board recommends that the church vigorously and in no uncertain terms sound a call that will compellingly invite into our church schools those who are not now receiving Christian nurture. Every pastor, presiding elder, and interested layman is strongly urged seriously and untiringly to promote the enrollment and attendance in our church schools.

We recommend the election of the following staff:

B. SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES

1. Rutherford College. The Trustees of Rutherford College are now engaged in liquidating the affairs of the institution. At the conclusion of this process and in accordance with the action of the Annual Conference, the assets remaining after obligations have been discharged will be merged with those of Brevard College.

2. Brevard College. This junior college has made a notable beginning and has entered upon the third year of its existence with about four hundred students. We heartily approve efforts now contemplated to raise funds for this institution and especially to increase the endowment, it being understood that a campaign for such purpose is to be carried out in sound and conservative fashion and that highly commercialized efforts are to be avoided.

A communication was received from the Board of Trustees of Brevard College. Its proposals were amended by the Board, and the Board recommends the passage of the following resolution:

RESOLUTION

“RESOLVED: That the Western North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at this 1936 annual session, hereby specifically authorizes the Board of Trustees of Brevard College, Incorporated, to sell and convey, and to authorize the sale and conveyance by the corporation's proper officers, the real estate and buildings, now owned by Brevard College, Incorporated, and formerly owned and occupied by Weaver College, consisting of 32 acres of land, more or less, and the buildings thereon, at Weaverville, N. C., the purchase price to be paid upon such terms and in such manner as the Board of Trustees of Brevard College, Incorporated, may approve and determine.”

The following communication was also received from the Board of Trustees of Brevard College:

RESOLVED: That the Board of Christian Education be and is requested to recommend that this 1936 session of the Annual Conference adopt a resolution substantially as follows:

RESOLUTION

RESOLVED: That the Western North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at this 1936 annual session, hereby specifically authorizes the Board of Trustees of Brevard College, Incorporated, to convey and authorize the conveyance by the corporation's proper officers, by fee simple deed, to Oliver H. Orr and Jennie Lee Orr, his wife, all the right, title, and interest, the same being an undivided five-sixth interest, of Brevard College, Incorporated, in two tracts of land in Little River Township, Transylvania County, N. C., containing 7.25 acres and 10.57 acres, respectively, fully described in deed dated July 14, 1933, registered in Book 66, page 198, Transylvania Registry, from J. H. Picklesimer and others to E. D. Mouzon and others, to which reference is made for a more particular description, being all the land in said Little River Township, in which Brevard College, Incorporated, owns an interest.

RESOLVED, FURTHER: That the Western North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at this 1936 annual session, hereby approves the conveyance of said land by Brevard College, Incorporated, under authority of this resolution, in return for which Brevard College, Incorporated, will receive from Oliver H. Orr and Jennie Lee Orr, his wife, a lot and house located within the corporate limits of the town of Brevard, fronting 83 feet on French Broad Avenue, and extending at approximately that width to a depth of approximately 200 feet, being situated at intersection of East French Broad Avenue and Johnston Street.

RESOLVED, FURTHER: That in the exchange of the property heretofore described, the Western North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at this 1936 annual session, hereby approves the payment by Brevard College, Incorporated, to Oliver H. Orr and Jennie Lee Orr, his wife, of an amount not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500.00).

We recommend the adoption of this resolution.

3. Davenport College. With reference to Davenport College the following resolution was approved by the Board, and we recommend its adoption by the Conference:

RESOLUTION

“WHEREAS: Several years ago the Western North Carolina Conference passed a resolution fixing the policy of the Conference that it should have within the bounds of the Conference one, and only one, junior college maintained by us, and

"WHEREAS: The difficulties of financial support and of the requirements for accreditation are such as to render uncertain the future of an additional junior college within the bounds of our Conference,

"THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

"1. That this Board of Christian Education desires to express its appreciation of the loyalty of the friends and alumnae of Davenport College, and of the loyalty of the Trustees of the institution;

"2. We record our gratitude to the citizens of Lenoir for the deep and concrete interest which they have shown in the possible re-opening of the college, especially as evidenced by subscriptions recently made amounting to a substantial sum to be paid in case the college had re-opened this present autumn;

"3. That this Annual Conference requests the Trustees of Greensboro and Davenport Colleges to resume negotiations looking to the merging of the two institutions with instructions that, should a merger be effected, a school for young women either of high grade preparatory or junior college grade be operated at the plant in Lenoir under the auspices of the Trustees of the institution located in Greensboro."

4. Greensboro College. We are happy to note that Greensboro College has opened this academic year under the most favorable auspices, having an enrollment of 344 students. All the dormitories are filled to capacity. President Gobbel, his staff of workers, the alumnae, trustees and other supporters of the institution are to be congratulated upon their evident success. We approve the effort authorized by the Trustees to increase the endowment of the college, and heartily recommend the program now in preparation for observing in 1938 the centennial of the founding of the college.

5. Duke University. This great institution of learning under the patronage of our Conference makes steady progress and constantly widens its circle of influence. More students are enrolled than at any period in its history. We heartily endorse efforts being made to increase the endowment and approve plans being made by the Trustees and faculty for the centennial celebration to be held in 1938.

The amount apportioned by the Commission on Budget is $40,877.

We recommend that the apportionment for schools and colleges total $28,877; that from the amount collected, for schools and colleges, the sum of $1,140 be used for the payment of the coupons of the $19,000 second mortgage bonds of Rutherford College as they mature; and that other appropriations be made as follows:

|  |           |
|--|-----------|
| Pastors' School .....                      | $ 400.00 |
| Duke University (Ivey Chair) .....         | 3,000.00  |
| Duke University (Religious Training) ..... | 3,000.00  |
| Greensboro College .....                   | 6,000.00  |
| Brevard College .....                      | 6,000.00  |
| E. M. Cole Trust Fund .....                | 500.00    |
| Sustentation Fund .....                    | 1,000.00  |

We recommend that the apportionment for local church work be $12,000.

We request, also, that you elect and confirm as Trustees of Greensboro College James G. Hanes, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Dr. Dred Peacock, representing the Western North Carolina Conference, whose term expired December 31, 1934; Richard G. Stockton, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of M. D. Stockton, representing the Western North Carolina Conference, whose term would have expired December 31, 1936; and Miss Annie Laurie Lowrance, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of F. C. Odell, representing the Alumnae Association, whose term would have expired December 31, 1937.

We request that W. A. Stanbury, C. C. Weaver, and C. H. Moser be added to the Board of Managers of the Pastors' School.

We recommend the following appointments: O. L. Simpson, Associate Editor, Church School Publications, General Board of Christian Education; H. B. Trimble, Professor Emory University; G. T. Rowe, P. N. Garber, Professors Duke University; W. M. Curtis, Treasurer Greensboro College; C. H. King, Executive Secretary, Board of Christian Education; J. G. Wilkinson, Extension Secretary, Board of Christian Education; J. C. Stokes and M. B. Stokes, Jr., students Boston University; and J. S. Higgins, student Duke University.

We request the election and confirmation of the following Trustees of Rutherford College, their terms to expire in 1939: A. J. Kirby, H. L. Millner, O. V. Woosley, G. B. Goodson, and B. S. Womble.

REPORT OF BOARD OF CHRISTIAN LITERATURE

We believe that the preparation and distribution of a Christian periodical is an important part of the greatest work in the world, the establishment of the Kingdom of God among men. Thomas Jefferson said: "If the choice was left to me whether to have a free press or a free government, I would choose a free press." If we should believe in the power of the press, as did Jefferson, there would be a new emphasis placed on the distribution of Christian literature.

We believe that the spiritual life of our people would be deepened to a great extent if our pastors and other officers of the local church would select wisely and read carefully and prayerfully from the abundance of good literature that is being produced today.

We note with gratitude the continued popularity of the devotional pamphlet, "The Upper Room." This little booklet, published not for profit, but for the good it may accomplish, is so much in demand that it was necessary to print 500,000 copies during the past quarter. It has been given wide recognition in the National Preaching Mission and its circle of usefulness constantly becomes wider, both at home and abroad.

We would also invite your attention to three books which have been published recently and the reading of which will be a rewarding experience for our people. They are:

1. "The Great Evangel"—Lynn Harold Hough.
2. "The Master's Influence"—Dean Charles R. Brown.
3. "John Wesley and Modern Religion"—Umphrey Lee.

In this connection, we wish to commend most heartily the World Outlook, official missionary organ of our church.

The importance of using in our church schools the literature produced by our Publishing House cannot be too strongly emphasized. We urge the pastor to exercise general oversight in the ordering of such literature and to see that the different periodicals are placed in the departments for which they are intended. Also we urge that those who attend to the matter of making these orders allow the Publishing House ample time for delivering the literature.

We recommend that each pastor make a special effort to place the Christian Advocate, published at Nashville, in as many homes as possible. This Advocate is not strictly a "preachers' paper." Three-fourths of the pages of every issue are given over to material that is interesting to everyone. Especially should stewards and other officers read this official organ of Southern Methodism.

The first week in December has been approved as a time for placing special emphasis on the circulation of the Christian Advocate and promotional literature will be mailed to any pastor on request.

Our own North Carolina Christian Advocate cannot be too strongly recommended. The faithful reading of this paper will insure a better informed church and, therefore, a more active church. We are heartily in favor of the following goals which have been set for this year and urge our people to strive to make them possible of attainment:

1. That the North Carolina Christian Advocate be given an equal place with all other institutions of the church in order that Education, Missions, Orphanages and other interests may profit by its larger circulation, this being our one institution that can and does contribute to every undertaking in our two Conferences.

2. That we continue as our goal every Board of Stewards 100% subscribers to the North Carolina Christian Advocate that they may secure a better informed lay leadership without which we must fail. In this way our laymen can be brought to appreciate the honor and the responsibility of being stewards.

3. That our Board of Christian Education and the missionary auxiliaries continue to aid the pastors in the circulation of the church paper, being assured of its constant aid to all these causes. It would be well to try to make all Boards of Christian Education and women's auxiliaries 100% subscribers for this organ of North Carolina Methodism.

The following plan of action concerning this paper is strongly recommended: To make an introductory offer of the North Carolina Christian Advocate to new subscribers for 12 weeks or 3 months for 30 cents. This offer holds in each Conference following the adjournment of the Conference. All who renew at the end of the period will continue to get the paper—otherwise it will be stopped at the end of 12 weeks.

This offer will make it possible for every home to profit by the weekly visits of this 32-page paper during this campaign for the advancement of North Carolina Methodism. It will also restore to the subscription list of this paper many people who have stopped taking it for financial reasons.

(Signed) R. C. GOFORTH, Chairman,
A. C. TIPPETT, Secretary.

BOARD OF MISSIONS—REPORT NO. 1

The Board of Missions desires to call the attention of the Conference to the needs of our work with the students of the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina. There are 608 Methodist girls enrolled there from 84 of the 100 counties of North Carolina, and also from 18 other states and two foreign countries, making the largest denominational group in the college.

Our College Place Church, the religious home of these young women during their years in college, has become inadequate to provide accommodations for the church school. The enrollment of the local and the college group, exclusive of the Home Department, is 1,228. All the available space is full to overflowing; students stand outside the doors to hear and to complete their attendance. It has been necessary for the church to rent a nearby store building to take care of this emergency. The lease on this store building expires on January 1, 1937.

We respectfully request the Boards of Christian Education, Church Extension, and Missions to take this matter under advisement and to seek to make provision for the situation immediately.

(Signed) R. O. LINDSAY, Vice-Chairman,
J. D. RANKIN, Secretary.

BOARD OF MISSIONS—REPORT NO. 2

In response to the call of our College of Bishops for a great forward advance in missions, the objective being to re-emphasize and re-vitalize the church with the missionary and evangelistic passion, and to strengthen our work in every field by liquidating the indebtedness of our Board of Missions, we join in hearty approval. Your Board of Missions regards such an advanced movement as timely and urgently needed in our church. We believe it will be well received by the people of our church. We believe it will tend toward a revival among us of that vital spirituality which longs for the salvation of all men and expresses itself in a vigorous policy of world evangelization.

Therefore, Be It Resolved:

1. That we welcome the leadership of the Bishops in the proposed undertaking, and pledge to them, and especially to Bishop Arthur J. Moore, the Director, our full co-operation in every aspect of the movement.

2. That we recognize and elect the President of the Board of Missions and the Conference Missionary Secretary as delegates to the Missionary Council to be held in New Orleans on January 5, 6, and 7, 1937.

3. That we especially urge our preachers and people to take part in one or both of the great rallies to be held in this Conference, the one at Greensboro on Friday, January 15, and the other at Charlotte on Tuesday, January 19. We bespeak hearty co-operation in all the cultivation plans that may be adopted.

4. That we seek large attendance for the District Missionary Institutes and make them, in so far as possible, occasions of information, organization, and inspiration. The dates and places for holding the institutes are for

5. That we confirm the appointment of Dr. C. C. Weaver as Director for this Conference and pledge to him our full support and co-operation.

6. That we recommend the election of L. B. Abernethy, C. H. Moser, C. C. Weaver, in the order named, to fill the vacancies on the Board of Managers for the North Carolina Pastors' School caused by the expiration of the terms of J. T. Mangum, C. H. Moser, and C. C. Weaver, for a full term of three years.

7. That L. B. Abernethy be appointed Conference Missionary Secretary and Director of the Golden Cross.

8. In the interest of enlarged service in the field of Christian Evangelism the Board is profoundly convinced that the hour has struck for a real evangelistic forward movement within the territory of this Conference. We are led to believe that the preachers and laymen share this conviction. We are making but scant headway against the forces of sin and unrighteousness. We need again to emphasize the passion for the salvation of lost men and women. We urge that all our preachers and laymen shall give to this great enterprise their loyal and eager devotion.

In conformity with plans presented to us by Bishop Kern we are requesting that he set apart Dr. E. K. McLarty as Director of Evangelism to give his entire time to evangelistic preaching in the strategic centers of our territory and directing in the creation of a new and larger interest upon the part of preachers and laymen in the task of evangelizing the unreached multitudes around us.

In order that this movement may have continued and intelligent direction we recommend the creation of a special Commission on Evangelism composed of the following members: C. C. Weaver, L. B. Abernethy, C. H. Moser, P. W. Tucker, L. B. Hayes, W. A. Stanbury, Carl H. King, A. J. Kirby, Ben H. Smith, and Mrs. J. L. Woltz.

That the following be appointed Trustees for the Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital, for a term of three years: Mason Lillard, W. A. Neaves, Thurmond Chatham, and Alex Chatham.

REPORT OF BOARD OF FINANCE

Your Board of Finance had an increase of only ten dollars this year while the need of our claimants appears greater on account of the rise in the cost of living. We have endeavored to deal faithfully with each case. There are 70 men, 80 women, and 2 children receiving allotments from this Board.

Rev. C. S. Kirkpatrick has been appointed to represent the superannuate Endowment Fund throughout the Conference. The month of May, 1937, is set aside for the collection of balance due from the churches where the adjusted quotas have not been paid.

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON BUDGET

Your Commission on Budget thinks well of the voluntary element of our new financial system, if properly handled, but we are a little alarmed when the second year of the use of the system reveals that not only has no District in the Conference accepted its full quota, but that seven out of the ten Districts have accepted through the Quarterly Conferences, less than they actually paid the preceding year. We would urge the presiding elders, pastors, and charge lay leaders to use every means possible to inspire the Quarterly Conferences to accept on their own volition, the quotas handed down by the District stewards. We recommend that in preparing Table No. 3 for publication in the minutes three columns be placed under the head of General and Conference Work, giving amount apportioned, amount accepted by Quarterly Conference, and amount paid.

We have heard with deep interest the statement of the need of funds for student work at Chapel Hill, in the North Carolina Conference, and at College Place in our own Conference, and your Commission appropriates $2,100, gross, to these joint interests, on the condition that the North Carolina Conference makes a like appropriation. We recommend that these funds be administered through the Wesley Foundation Commission on a 50-50 basis.

We recommend that the apportionment for the Children's Home remain at an amount equal to ten per cent (10%) of the pastor's salary for the current year and that the fifth Sunday offerings of all our church schools be continued as a free-will offering to the Home.

We further recommend that the Trustees of Brevard College and the Trustees of Greensboro College be authorized to go into the field, through such agency as they may devise, to secure funds to meet the needs of these colleges, and that our pastors be requested to co-operate in this work in every way practicable.

We recommend:

1. That the General and Conference Work total $231,196.
2. That $5,000 net be deducted from this total before distribution, for Conference expense.
3. That our apportionments be divided as follows:

|                 |           |        |
|-----------------|-----------|--------|
| General Work    | $108,574 | .4800  |

REPORT OF CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Your Board has gone carefully into the records of the holdings of the Conference intrusted to said Board. Before us were the annual audits, not only of the present year, but of the two preceding years. These audits are now in the hands of the Secretary-Treasurer and open to the inspection of any one who may desire to see them.

In this connection we note that in settlement of the Shepherd estate in Asheville $2,061 have come into our hands for the Conference. Other receipts accruing from rents and interest amount to $3,018.89. The disbursements for the year amount to $1,291.03, which leaves a balance of $1,727.86 from interest and rents.

The following was adopted:

It was moved by J. A. Bell, and duly seconded, that eight hundred dollars ($800.00) be appropriated from the interest and rents of the general fund to be paid to the Board of Finance for the superannuates. It was adopted.

It was also moved by J. A. Bell, and seconded by S. B. Turrentine, that any interest or rents, etc., accruing from the Higgins estate funds be applied to reduce the amount advanced by the General Fund to save the investments of the Higgins fund.

There was also presented to the Board notices that $2,656.26 was due the city of Greensboro for street assessments and the city is urging payment of these taxes.

These things explain why the Trustees are unable to make larger payments to the superannuates and nothing at all to other claims.

(Signed) J. B. IVEY, Chairman,
A. W. PLYLER, Treasurer.

REPORT OF TRUSTEES OF SUPERANNUATE ENDOWMENT FUND

The Trustees report:

1. Improvement in the status of our loans and real estate investments. The current interest payments are more satisfactory, and some collections on the interest in arrears are being made. We are realizing about six per cent from our foreclosed real estate, with a prospect of some increase from this source. Our average income for the year from interest and rents is practically  $4\frac{1}{4}$  per cent. Under the present conditions desirable loans on real estate at the legal rate of interest have become difficult. The general outlook, however, for a better return on our investments seems to be satisfactory.

2. May we call attention to the fact that there are some 150 ministers and widows as Conference claimants, and the provisions for their support are seriously inadequate for comfort, and many are anxious for the necessities of life, and until this is remedied, we urge our Methodist people to not forget the appeal of the Superannuate Endowment Fund. Let us be sensible of our debt to these faithful servants of our church, and make a gift while living, or by will, to the Superannuate Endowment Fund of our Conference.

3. Dr. W. C. Houston, of Concord, and J. H. Little, of Charlotte, were re-elected Trustees at the 1935 session of the Conference, but the record failed to appear in the minutes, and we ask that their election as Trustees until the Conference session of 1939 be ratified and approved.

(Signed) JAS. A. BELL,
J. B. IVEY,
W. C. HOUSTON.

REPORT OF BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

Your Committee to prepare a preliminary report to be presented to the Board of Lay Activities suggests the following items to be included in the Board's report to the Annual Conference:

STEWARDSHIP AND FINANCE

Although we commend the efforts which have been made by the laymen and the ministers of our Conference to pay 100% of the acceptances, we decry the tendency in some quarters to accept smaller amounts. We believe that sentiment should be aroused on this matter to the end that wherever possible, districts, charges, and churches should accept 100% of the askings for benevolences.

Being convinced that the success of the new financial plan depends upon an ever-increasing appreciation and practice of the principle of Christian stewardship, we make the following suggestions:

1. A mass meeting of the stewards and other church officials of each District to be held as soon as possible after the session of the Annual Conference.
2. A strong program of information and inspiration for each first Quarterly Conference before the vote is taken on the acceptance of the askings.
3. Co-operation of presiding elders, pastors, and lay leaders in the methods now available for institutes, study classes, and other programs for the training of laymen in principles and practice of stewardship.
4. The use of leaflets, books, and other literature on the subject of stewardship and finance.

We suggest furthermore:

1. The goal of one-half of the benevolences by the session of the District Conference for 1936-1937.
2. A goal of benevolences paid in full one month before the session of the Annual Conference.
3. A minimum of two days sessions of the District Conference in order to make them outstanding for education and inspiration.

SUPPORT OF THE MINISTRY

Having in mind fairness to the ministry as well as its efficiency, we suggest that every charge Board in fixing the pastor's salary, bear in mind that the minister's budget must include not only food, clothing, and shelter but also education for the children, transportation, books, periodicals, pastors' schools, and the ability to share in the social welfare of his community. We suggest, also, monthly payments of the pastor's salary.

We would also call attention to the opportunity which laymen have of aiding the families of deceased ministers by joining in the Conference Brotherhood.

LAYMEN'S DAY

We recommend the observance of Laymen's Day on the second Sunday in June, or as near thereto as practicable, and that the program of the General Board of Lay Activities be used as a basis of the program for the day. We suggest that laymen be used as speakers on this occasion and on other occasions as opportunity and need may arise.

OUR CHURCH PAPER

Commending the North Carolina Christian Advocate as a powerful and indispensable influence in the educational, social, moral and religious life of the state, we propose that earnest efforts be made to place our church paper in the home of every official member of the church and, in so far as possible, in every Methodist home in the Conference.

EVANGELISM

Believing heartily in the efficiency of personal evangelism, we urge that laymen seek to employ continuously all available means of grace to the end that each may ever grow more Christ-like in his own inner life and seek to have a definite part in carrying out the Great Commission "to make disciples of all men." We suggest co-operation with the pastor, the church school, and other agencies in their evangelistic programs.

ECONOMIC JUSTICE

Believing that it is not enough merely to ameliorate the suffering of the poor and the unfortunate, we call attention to the need of removing the causes of human suffering. We propose that the time has come when intelligent effort should be made to prevent degrading poverty and unfair dealing. We commend those employers and employees who are endeavoring to work together with a common understanding and regard for the rights of each other. Without professing to offer a panacea or formula for specific cases of maladjustment we do recommend that members of our church individually think through the teachings of Jesus concerning their dealings with others.

TEMPERANCE

Aware of the danger to individuals and to society in the increase of drunkenness, we urge that Christian people everywhere give battle to the liquor interests, who, in their effrontery, try to make our people, women and children as well as men, liquor-minded. Specifically we suggest:

1. A temperance program at each District Conference.
2. Co-operation with the church school in plans for educating concerning the evils of alcohol.
3. Co-operation with all agencies fighting the legalized sale of liquor when a battle is to be waged in the state, counties, or other political unit.
4. Requirement of public officers that they rigidly enforce all prohibition laws in dry territory and regulatory laws enacted to protect society in localities where the sale of liquor is legalized.
5. Total abstinence from the use of every kind of alcoholic liquor as a beverage.
6. The nomination of no person for membership on the Board of Stewards who drinks intoxicating liquors or who is known to be in sympathy with the sale of strong drink.

WORLD PEACE

In this day of a growing sense of insecurity throughout the world, the church must take the lead in promoting "good will among men." Preparation for international duels we hold to be contrary to the spirit and teachings of Jesus Christ and conducive to world slaughter, and economic and spiritual bankruptcy. We, therefore, suggest:

1. That our teachers and preachers use every opportunity to speak against war and in the interest of World Peace.

2. That co-operation be given every agency working for world peace, especially the Emergency Peace Campaign, the National Council for the Prevention of War, and the Institute of International Relations conducted annually at Duke University.

$1,000 requested for Lay Activities for 1936-37.

We commend the efforts of the Conference in the support of the work of Dr. Richard E. Strain, now in China as a special new missionary of the Western North Carolina Conference.

We nominate Mr. A. J. Kirby, of Gastonia, for the position of Conference Lay Leader of the Western North Carolina Conference. Mr. Kirby has been an active and effective District Lay Leader for twelve years.

PAUL F. EVANS, Secretary.

REPORT OF TRUSTEES OF CHILDREN'S HOME

Can you think of a group of children, separated from father and mother, as being happy, joyful and free from worry and anxiety? Such a group is located at the Children's Home. Three hundred and eighty-four youngsters, 203 boys and 181 girls, now constitute the happy family located there. They love their home. They associate with those who love them and whom they love. They live in the assurance that their actual needs will be supplied by their friends. Truly, a bunch of happy and deserving youngsters lives at the Methodist Children's Home.

It may be recalled that we now have 142 more resident children than we had six years ago. Our mothers' aid family has increased from twenty-five to 175 in a similar period of time. The total number of children now being served amounts to 559.

The status of these children is more healthy, hopeful and wholesome than during any time within the present administration. The passing of the years and the accumulation of experiences have enabled us to more properly and more carefully provide for the needs of our youngsters. We know definitely from what conditions they came, a great deal about their current trends of attitude and habit, and quite a lot about their hopes, aspirations and ambitions. The morale of our family was never better than now.

Our children are not only contented and happy but they are resourceful. They are becoming more purposeful in the doing of things. They believe in the Children's Home and are glad to let the Children's Home spirit permeate their lives. Such values as honesty, dependability and moral resourcefulness are becoming more and more evident in their lives.

Of course the challenge of directing youngsters will ever be with us, but it is a great satisfaction to state that a constantly increasing number of our boys and girls are becoming able to make for themselves right choices and proper evaluations of conditions and circumstances surrounding them. It may be recalled that our high school boys and girls, 107 this year, spend their school days with other young Americans outside the Children's Home family. They attend the Richard J. Reynolds High School, where over 1,500 other Winston-Salem youths are in school. These associations and experiences, together with their varied courses of study, have tended to broaden their outlook and to better prepare them for life's challenges.

During the Conference year the Norfleet Building has been completed, furnished and occupied. Some $36,000 has thus been expended. It is the best constructed and the best furnished building on our grounds. Funds for this building were provided by the J. K. Norfleet family, Winston-Salem.

The Brown Memorial Building, constructed with funds provided by Mrs. L. E. Brown, of Waxhaw, in memory of her thirteen-year-old son, L. E. Brown, Jr., has been completed and occupied. This building will be used for our library and our social and religious activities. It provides for a kitchenette and a suitable room for Boy Scouts. The Brown Building, along with the Administration Building, close by, will become our community center.

Thanks to the generous gift of $35,000 from James A. Gray, we are now in process of constructing a new building to be used by our larger girls. This building, to be known as the James A. Gray Building, will be a complete unit, providing for kitchen and dining room facilities. It is so arranged as to provide suitable quarters for at least thirty girls, a house mother, a dietitian and a guest room. A notable feature is provided for in the way of a kitchenette and small dining room to be used by the girls in planning and preparing meals for family size groups. The completion of this building will provide for sufficient quarters for housing a similar number of girls to the boys now enrolled. At no distant date it is expected that the Children's Home will be in position to care for 400 children.

After careful case work extending through nearly seven years it appears that our accommodations will provide for the orphan children of our constituency. In our opinion, not every child deprived of father and mother, or both, should be placed in an orphanage. An orphanage is a place of last resort. Certainly no child should be taken from a good mother, so long as funds can be provided for sustaining her home. It is better to help the mother provide for her children. Our mothers' aid work ought not only to continue but to increase its effectiveness.

Many children are temperamentally and physically unsuited to live in a large family such as ours. These children, we think, should be located in foster homes. Only a limited amount of such work has yet been attempted by your Children's Home. It is thought that in the course of time and as soon as funds will permit this work should be enlarged. It is, therefore, evident that every effort is being made for aiding in the welfare of orphan boys and girls who have a right to look to the Methodist Church for a chance.

It is not the thought of your Board of Trustees to ask for any apportionment over and above that which now prevails. If every charge will raise its ten per cent apportionment and every church school will give a fitting offering on each fifth Sunday, over and above this apportionment, the boys and girls deprived of parents in our Conference can be provided for. Surely our great body of Methodists will not want to deny these children, from whom much has been taken, their last ray of hope.

The Children's Home continues to operate on a balanced budget. We are not in debt. The material resources of our institution continue to increase, thanks to the donations of friends and to the bequested receipts from settled estates which come from time to time. The Children's Home is becoming more and more a firm foundation on which the needs of under-privileged children can be laid.

(Signed) T. F. MARR, Chairman Board of Trustees.

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON SPIRITUAL LIFE

We feel that we must not only bring to your attention in this report, but urge that we so pray and work during the coming year, that the spiritual life of pastors and members may be greatly deepened.

We heartily appreciate the fact that special organized plans have been made for a Conference-wide movement in the interest of Evangelism and we urge the complete co-operation of every pastor and request that each presiding elder give one hour of the District Conference to consideration of this most important work, that more emphasis be placed on spiritual life.

(Signed) JOHN W. MOORE, Chairman,
T. A. GROCE, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BIBLE BOARD

The American Bible Society has made an encouraging report of the year 1935 which is the 120th year of its continuous scripture ministry in the circulating of the Holy Scriptures without note or comment.

TRANSLATION

Each year new groups of the people of the world are provided with translations of the Bible in their own language. At the end of 1935 there were 175 translations of the whole Bible, 382 of the New Testament, and, including parts of the Bible, a whole of 972 languages and dialects.

PUBLICATION

A new special service to churches and Sunday schools was inaugurated during 1935 whereby free freight delivery is included with shipments of English Bibles and Scriptures in certain size lots, thereby reducing the cost.

DISTRIBUTION

During 1935, the Society distributed more than 7,200,000 volumes of Bibles, Testaments, Gospels and other portions. Of these, over 4,250,000 volumes were distributed in about forty foreign countries. In some lands it was feared that adverse political and military conditions would affect the circulation but on the whole, in all of the agencies the circulation was well maintained. The steady increase in the number of entire Bibles circulated in China continued, last year being the fifth year in succession in which the number of entire Bibles put in circulation in China by the Bible Societies was greater than any preceding year since the beginning of evangelical work in China. An insight into the methods of the Society's work and its opportunities is indicated by the fact that its col-porteurs in Japan in twelve years have called upon some 2,191,000 households, yet at the present rate of distribution it will take nearly fifty years to supply once the 65,000,000 people of Japan and by then 30,000,000 more will be added to the population. The free distribution in the United States of over 65,000 copies of the five-cent New Testament in the C. C. C. camps scattered throughout the country is worthy of note.

SERVICE TO THE BLIND

Last year the Society, in celebrating its centennial of service to the blind, reported that in a century of ministry to the Scripture needs of the blind, more than 120,000 of the bulky and expensive "embossed" Scripture volumes in 25 languages and systems were issued in this country and abroad. In 1935 there were distributed in the United States 3,887 embossed volumes. During the year, the Society's popular volume of selected Scripture passages was embossed in the Moon system and also made available in the "talking book" form on two double-faced records; and the whole Bible in the new Standard Braille in 18 volumes was completed. Pastors should note that Scripture volumes in the "embossed" form costing from two to eight dollars to manufacture can be secured from the Society for only twenty-five cents per volume.

UNIVERSAL BIBLE SUNDAY

Following its custom of many years, the Society will issue material for the use of pastors and churches in observing Universal Bible Sunday, which will occur on the second Sunday of December. The Society is suggesting that Bible Sunday be utilized this year to encourage a more general use of the Bible and the assumption by its users of greater responsibility for its distribution. Included in the material, which will be provided free, will be a 7,500-word brochure by the Reverend Paul B. Kern, D. D., our own beloved Bishop.

Your Committee would call attention to the valuable aids obtainable from the Society in magnifying the Bible through the churches and their organizations. Pamphlets, leaflets, stereopticon lectures, Scripture exhibits, and posters are all available, many of such aids being free. Pastors and Sunday school leaders will especially appreciate the availability of a new "History of the English Bible" in full-size facsimiles of representative pages of the great historic English Bibles printed between 1525 and 1611. This series makes a splendid display and costs but two dollars a set, postpaid.

Your Committee present the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, The work of the American Bible Society in translating, publishing, and distributing the Bible is of great importance in the life of the churches and is indispensable to the whole missionary enterprise; be it resolved:

First: That we express our hearty endorsement of the activities of the Society in its efforts to make the Bible more generally the common possession of humanity;

Second: That inasmuch as Sunday, December 13, Temperance Sunday, has been designated as Universal Bible Sunday, ministers and churches represented in this body take advantage of the co-operation offered by the Society in furnishing assistance, and plan carefully for a worthy observance of the day;

Third: That this body recognizes that our denomination has officially recommended the giving of 1.15 per cent of its benevolence budget to the American Bible Society;

Fourth: That we, as pastors, appoint a Committee in each church to supply the children with Bibles, so that each child may have a Bible;

Fifth: We heartily commend to our pastors and churches Dr. McLaughlin's plan for the distribution of Penny Gospel Portions and New Testaments to school children of sixth grade and up, and refer them for details to the American Bible Society, 218 N. Adams St., Richmond, Va.

Sixth: We respectfully request each presiding elder to recommend to the Chairman of your Bible Board at least one pastor or layman in each county to serve as a local colporteur of the A. B. S. in connection with and as a part of his regular appointment work.

(Signed) EBENEZER MYERS, Chairman,
A. BURGESS, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON METHODIST
CO-OPERATION

The Commission on Methodist Co-operation held its annual meeting in the office of the Editor of the North Carolina Christian Advocate, Greensboro, N. C., on Friday, October 2. Representatives were present from each of our Methodisms. As a result of our deliberations, the following message is presented for your consideration:

Since our last report the General Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal and the Methodist Protestant Churches have adopted, by overwhelming votes, the Plan of Union proposed by the Commissions on Union of the three Methodisms. It is now being acted upon by the Annual Conferences of the two bodies whose General Conferences have passed it down to them. None of the Annual Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church has opposed the adoption of the Plan of Union. On the contrary the vote has in every case been almost unanimous. As the Commission meets, twelve Annual Conferences of the Methodist Protestant Church have voted on the Plan of Union. Nine have voted for it; three against it. But it is unquestioned that more than the necessary two-thirds majority will approve it in their sessions during October and November. Pending the holding of the General Conference, the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, has taken no official action; but the sentiment and attitude toward union is so unmistakably favorable that it is only a matter of the necessary lapse of time until the Plan of Union will have been adopted by all three churches, and we shall go on until the holding of the Uniting Conference. But this can apparently not be held before 1939.

"The King's business requireth haste," but not too much haste. We would caution our people in each of the Annual Conferences and in all the local churches not to be precipitate; but to prepare themselves for the ultimate union of our forces. This can best be done with each group carrying on its own work, developing and utilizing its own resources: spiritual and physical; but at the same time encouraging and taking advantage of every possible opportunity for friendly contacts and co-operation. To this end we would suggest:

1. The holding of evening services together wherever practical, alternating, if possible, between church houses, the pastors taking turns in preaching; or making any other arrangements as to services as shall emphasize this sense of unity.

2. That wherever possible the ministers of the three groups assist each other in the holding of revival services. The Commission might assist in securing pastors for this exchange of evangelistic effort.

3. That the pastors of the three Methodisms take advantage of the Pastors' Summer Schools conducted by each group, attending the one nearest them, and thereby becoming better acquainted with the personnel in the several Conferences. An invitation is extended by the Duke School of Religion and the officers of the Pastors' Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, held at Duke University, for the ministers of the other two Methodisms to attend and share in its benefits. The acceptance of the invitation is, of course, at the pleasure of each group. But the Commission commends it to the brethren as one means of attaining this sense of approaching oneness.

4. That we suggest again to the officers of the Annual Conference Councils of Religious Education, or similar bodies, the advantage of holding group meetings in which the three Methodisms shall be represented wherever possible, for the training of Christian workers, whether in Conference assemblies or in local church groups. If this does not seem advisable at this stage, then we would suggest that wherever one group is holding such schools or assemblies, the others be invited to attend and participate.

5. That we undertake again the holding of joint gatherings for mutual fellowship where the principles and programs, the historic background, the common heritage and task of Methodism may be emphasized. Two such meetings, one at Green Hill's house, the other at High Point College, were held during last July with encouraging results.

6. The Commission on Methodist Co-operation created by the three branches of the Methodist Church in North Carolina is probably unique. To our knowledge nothing like it exists anywhere in America. It may well be that through its work the approach to union will be much more easily effected here than elsewhere. The success of the union movement will depend much on that approach. The Commission, therefore, asks the hearty support of each Conference, pastor and local church, to the end that its work, when and if union is consummated, may be the more effective in bringing about a real union of our forces in North Carolina; and set an example for the Conferences and churches of the uniting Methodisms in the other states.

C. W. BATES, Secretary.

REPORT OF BOARD OF MANAGERS OF NORTH CAROLINA PASTORS' SCHOOL

The Pastors' School last June co-operated with the Country Church Institute and the Institute of International Relations running simultaneously at Duke University. There was a profitable interchange of privileges greatly appreciated by the many in attendance.

Some who are regular attendants at these institutes testify that their value increases with the years. The tendency is to arrange from year to year the courses offered so as to allow more and more elasticity for those who desire to take courses for credit.

Plans are already being worked out by Dean Ormond for the session next June.

REPORT OF THE RURAL CHURCH COMMISSION

Your Rural Church Commission has met twice during the past year and as a result of these meetings desires to submit the following report:

The country church problem is closely related to the whole farm problem. A question of importance to both is: how to create and maintain a stable and ennobling rural civilization. At present farming does not yield dividends large enough to make it attractive and profitable. There must be a satisfactory standard of living for the farm family if we are to build a stable rural civilization. We believe that the right kind of schools would be a valuable aid in solving this need.

Our rural schools should be planned with the idea of ministering to all age and sex groups of the rural family, providing training in subjects of special interest and importance to people living in the country. Farm-life schools equipped to teach thorough courses in agriculture, experimental farming, dairying, stock and poultry raising, domestic science, rural sanitation, etc., would eventually result in making farming more profitable and attractive to our rural people.

We believe that the country churches should hold up to the people such social ideals as will inspire them to ask for a system of education thoroughly suited to their needs.

We believe that tenancy is one of the chief social and economic evils of our Southland; that it fosters poverty, illiteracy, and criminality, that it is destructive of spiritual values in the tenant family, and that it is a source of much discontent and strife. We deplore the fact that fifty-eight per cent of our farms in the South are operated by tenants. We pledge ourselves to encourage all legitimate movements that will enable tenants to become home-owners. We further pledge ourselves to a larger interest in and care for the shifting tenant families in the area of our Conference.

Every country church should have a worthwhile program. Of course this must be worked out according to the needs and opportunity of the community. We would make only a few suggestions here:

1. The rural church building should be used several nights a week.
2. There should be platform talks on timely subjects of interest to farmers, such as health, rural sanitation, schools, good roads and co-operative associations.
3. Community sings should be held.
4. Cantatas and plays should be presented.
5. Make use of Training Schools and Vacation Church Schools.
6. Conduct monthly socials and get-together meetings.
7. Use stereopticon slide exhibits.

We call attention, also, to the suggestions for a program contained in last year's report.

While many of our church problems are Conference-wide, we believe there are a number that are peculiar to each District. We therefore suggest that, as early in the Conference year as practicable, there be held in each presiding elder's District, under his direction and in co-operation with the members of this Commission residing in the District, a Rural Church Institute, composed of the preachers, the church lay leaders, and representatives from the Woman's Missionary Societies of all rural churches in the District, and invited professional rural workers, where these problems can be discussed and a co-operative attempt be made for their solution.

In many cases, especially with inexperienced pastors, problems that seem insurmountable can be solved by the experience and wisdom of a group.

Your Commission finds that there is not enough information concerning our rural churches to enable it to formulate a more definite and specific program for this field in our Conference. It is, therefore, recommended that a survey be made of our whole rural field in the following manner:

1. a. Let the title of "Table No. 5" in the published Minutes of our Conference be changed from "Country Church Report" to "Rural Church Report."
- b. Let there be a report of every rural church in said table. Since the Federal Census designates all centers having less than 2,500 population as "rural," the report should include all churches in such places. Too frequently there is no report for circuit churches that are located in villages. This impairs the value of the report.

- c. Beginning with the pastors' reports to the Annual Conference meeting in 1937, let "Table No. 5" be revised and enlarged so as to include the following items:

Additions on Profession of Faith
 Additions by Certificate
 Present Total Membership
 Value of Church Building and Equipment
 Indebtedness on Church Building
 Insurance Carried
 Number of Methodist Families
 Number of Subscribers to Conference Organ
 Members of Woman's Missionary Society
 Amount Raised by Woman's Missionary Society
 Total Enrollment in Church School
 Number in Children's Division
 Number in Young People's Division
 Number in Adult Division
 Number of Scholars Joining the Church
 Amount Raised by Church School
 Salaries                      Apportioned
     (P. E. & P. C.)      Paid
 Conference and General Work Assumed
                                     Paid
 Raised for Golden Cross and Hospitals
 Raised for Orphanage
                     (total)
 Raised for All Purposes

2. The presiding elders are requested to furnish the Chairman of the Commission the following information immediately after their District Conferences in 1937:
- The number and location of rural churches, of our denomination, that have been discontinued since 1920.
  - The name and location of churches not having church buildings.
  - The name of localities that do not have the ministry of any evangelical denomination.

The attention of the Conference is called to the report of the Rural Church Committee of last year which this Commission heartily endorses.

(Signed) P. W. TUCKER, Chairman,
 G. R. STAFFORD, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS

The Committee examined the District Conference Records from Charlotte, Gastonia, Greensboro, Marion, Salisbury, Statesville, Waynesville and Winston-Salem Districts. On the whole the records show some improvement over last year.

Again we recommend the loose-leaf locked binder as the best and most convenient way of preserving District Conference Records.

REPORT OF THE JOINT COMMISSION ON WESLEY FOUNDATION OF COLLEGE PLACE AND CHAPEL HILL CHURCHES

This Commission has given careful attention to the work of our churches at Chapel Hill and College Place, Greensboro, having held two meetings during the year. The more than 1,300 Methodist students of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, and of the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, are our special concern. That the Methodist people of the state may know something of what is being done for the students at our State University we submit the following statement of facts as furnished by the pastors of these two churches:

CHAPEL HILL

We have 700 Methodist students at Chapel Hill. A new department in our church school has been organized, known as the Student Department, a part of the Young People's Division. The leaders, the officers and committees come directly from the student group. While this department is young and just beginning, it is touching some 75 students. The eleven o'clock worship service on Sunday morning has an attendance of approximately 250 students.

The Student Forum meeting on Sunday evening at 7 o'clock is a student organization planned and carried on by students. Programs for student forums are planned a month in advance by the Student Council. The plan for the month is to have a varied program each Sunday evening, followed by a social hour.

By the combined efforts of the church school, the morning worship and the Student Forum, the church at Chapel Hill is touching approximately 400 students weekly. Through the efforts of the pastor, two friends have given a new pipe organ which will enhance the worship services of the church in a very effective way.

By refinancing the parsonage property the local congregation has been able to pay off $12,000 of its indebtedness. This leaves a balance of $5,000 due on the parsonage.

COLLEGE PLACE, GREENSBORO

Of the 1,785 students now enrolled in Woman's College of the University of North Carolina, more than 600 are Methodists. Eighty-four of the 100 counties of North Carolina are well represented. There are students from 18 other states and two from Cuba. More than one-third of the entire student body are Methodists. These students are organized into the Wesley Foundation, which has its headquarters at College Place Church and are under the direction of Miss Idalene Guldge, student director, aided by the pastor of the church.

The student council, composed of 14 members, elected from the Foundation, meets for an hour each Monday afternoon to report the work done during the previous week and to prepare for the week's activities. The programs of the student group are many and varied. These students meet regularly each week at the church school hour, where a joint program of worship is participated in by both local young people and students, members of each group having a part on the program.

At 11 o'clock service these students, with a large number of others who cannot attend at the church school hour, join in the worship service. These hundreds of students are an inspiration, and at the same time afford a great opportunity for the pastor and church to render a service of genuine worth. An hour before the regular evening service, student and young people's hour is held, at which time splendid programs are given by these groups jointly.

In helping these choice young spirits we not only help them as individuals, but they also go back into the communities and churches from whence they come to do the service of the Master. These girls are also to be the home-makers of tomorrow.

In order to carry on the work so well begun among our young people at Chapel Hill and College Place Church, Greensboro, after thorough discussion, the Joint Commission asks the two North Carolina Conferences for the following amounts:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FELLOWSHIP FUND

Your Committee recommends that the preachers of the Western North Carolina Conference levy an assessment upon themselves for the purpose of creating a fund to be used exclusively as an emergency fund for the relief of those imperative needs that may arise among our membership and for the relief of which there is no other provision made.

We recommend that the assessment shall be as follows:

- Salaries up to $999—one-eighth of one per cent.
- Salaries from $1,000 to $1,499—one-fourth of one per cent.
- Salaries from $1,500 to $1,999—one-half of one per cent.
- Salaries from $2,000 to $2,999—three-fourths of one per cent.
- Salaries from $3,000 to $3,999—one per cent.
- Salaries from $4,000 to $4,999—one and one-fourth per cent.
- Salaries from $5,000 and up—one and one-half per cent.

We recommend that this fund be administered by the Conference Board of Missions and that all funds be paid to the Conference Treasurer and remitted by him to the Treasurer of the Board of Missions.

It is further recommended that a permanent Fellowship Committee of three be appointed by the Bishop which shall have charge of promoting this cause among our membership.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY MINUTES

The annual meeting of the Historical Society of the Western North Carolina Conference was held in First Methodist Church, Salisbury, at 3:00 p. m., Thursday, October 22, 1936. Dr. S. B. Turrentine, President of the Society, was in the chair.

The opening devotional service was begun with the congregational singing of Hymn 256, "Faith of Our Fathers." Prayer was offered by Rev. W. S. Cherry. "More Love to Thee" was rendered as a solo by Mrs. John L. Rendleman.

The minutes of the previous year's session were read and approved (see Conference Minutes, 1935, page 81.) The Society instructed the President to appoint a Committee on nominations of officers for the coming year. The Committee appointed consisted of W. L. Sherrill, J. W. Moore, and J. H. Brendall. After consultation this Committee reported nominations as follows: for President, Dr. Paul N. Garber; for Vice-President, Dr. W. A. Lambeth; for Secretary-Treasurer, Rev. Wilbur G. McFarland; for membership on Executive Committee, Dr. A. W.

Plyler to succeed himself. The report was adopted by the Society, and the above-named were declared elected.

A most interesting address was presented by Rev. Philip L. Shore, on the subject, "Solomon Helsabeck and the People He Led."

An offering amounting to $9.04 was taken and paid the Advocate Publishing Company, of Greensboro, on account for printing.

The Society adjourned with the benediction by Brother Shore.

MINUTES OF THE CONFERENCE BROTHERHOOD

The Western North Carolina Conference Brotherhood met in twenty-eighth annual session at the First Methodist Church, Salisbury, N. C., October 22, 1936, at 4:00 p. m., with the President, H. G. Allen, in the chair. The hymn, "A Charge to Keep I Have," was sung, followed with prayer. The minutes of the last annual meeting were read and approved. The minutes of the Executive Committee meeting in Reidsville, September 21, 1936, were also read.

The President stated his plans for enlisting new lay members in the Brotherhood. He introduced Mr. Frank Stith, Conference Director of Laymen's Division, and also the District directors who were present. Each of these spoke briefly. C. E. Rozzelle moved that the first Sunday in December, 1936, or a Sunday as near that day as possible, be designated as Brotherhood Day in each church, and an especial effort be made to enlist lay members in the Brotherhood. The motion carried.

C. C. Herbert, Jr., Assistant Secretary and Treasurer, submitted the following report: Four of the members of the Brotherhood have died during the past year—Brothers Seymour Taylor, W. H. Willis, D. R. Proffitt, and J. B. Tabor. To the beneficiaries of each of these $800 has been paid to date. The balance on hand, together with the amount which will come in during Conference, will be ample to pay the total benefit of $1,200 to the beneficiaries of each, and leave a substantial amount in the treasury. The report was adopted.

There was further discussion concerning the adding of new lay members. Attention was called to the fact that 84 have been added since last Conference and that there are over 300 active lay members. A goal of 1,600 new lay members for the year was adopted. C. E. Rozzelle moved that the Brotherhood be presented at each District Stewards' meeting by the District lay directors. The motion carried. Statements as to the value of the Brotherhood were made by H. G. Allen, Earl Brendall, J. S. Hiatt, and others.

J. W. Moore proposed the following amendment to the Constitution to be voted on a year hence: "That the Brotherhood grant to the superannuates who may need the courtesy the privilege of paying their assessments by note instead of by cash."

The following Nominating Committee was appointed: S. B. Turrentine, J. S. Hiatt, and T. V. Crouse. The report of the Nominating Committee recommended the election of the following officers: H. G. Allen, President; R. C. Goforth, Vice-President; C. M. Pickens, Secretary and Treasurer; C. C. Herbert, Jr., Assistant Secretary and Treasurer; Frank Stith, Conference Director of Laymen's Division; H. C. Sprinkle and E. M. Jones, members of the Executive Committee. The report was adopted.

The names of the preachers who are not members of the Brotherhood were read, and each name was assigned to some member for solicitation.

The meeting adjourned with prayer.

(Signed) H. G. ALLEN, President,
C. C. HERBERT, JR., Assistant Secretary and Treasurer.

Memoirs

DAVID VANCE PRICE

Born August 13, 1856; died January 20, 1936. Between those dates there is the story of a Methodist preacher of unusual ability. It is the story of struggle and triumph, of sacrifice and devotion, of unshrinking courage and service.

There are many angles from which to approach the life of Brother Price. Let us first look for a moment at his heredity. On his father's side he goes back to 1682 when a Welsh Quaker by that name came to Pennsylvania even before William Penn himself came. Nearly a hundred years later Richard Price came to southwest Virginia. His son, John Wesley Price, located in Washington County, Virginia, and became one of the founders of Emory and Henry College. His son was Rev. R. N. Price, D. D., the father of Vance Price. Dr. R. N. Price was a genius. Teacher, preacher, author, historian, he was an independent and vigorous thinker and left his impress on hundreds. It was his good fortune, when a young preacher in Western North Carolina, to meet and marry Anne Vance of the celebrated family by that name. Her brothers, Senator Zeb. B. Vance and General Robt. B. Vance, were two of Carolina's most distinguished and worthy citizens. Brother Price was the eldest child of this union and was named for his grandfather, Col. David Vance, and his great-grandfather, Capt. David Vance of Kings Mountain fame. From such a heredity came Vance Price. No wonder he was unusually endowed.

Let me add a few more personal items about Brother Price. He was educated at Emory and Henry College in the days when men of unusual calibre adorned its faculty, a school from whose walls came a stream of preachers, lawyers, churchmen, scarcely equalled by any school in the church. We may add the most fortunate circumstance of his whole career. On October 19, 1880, at Marion, Virginia, he married Miss Lillie E. Shrock. Never man had a more devoted wife, nor lovely companion. For fifty-five years she stood by his side, loving, loyal, a preacher's wife who was a helpmeet indeed. How proud she was of him and how he adored her. When she slipped away on November 12, 1935, he was never himself again. He made a gallant attempt to go on as before, but the heart was gone out of his life.

Brother Price served all sorts of pastorates. Beginning in the mining section of East Tennessee he went to the blue grass section of Virginia. For two years he was pastor of Emory Circuit. Later among his Holston appointments were Cleveland, Tazewell, Centenary Church (Chattanooga), State Street (Bristol), from which church he entered the evangelistic field. This was too hard for him and he went to Florida in search of health. Then he came to Western North Carolina, and served Hendersonville, Reidsville, Albemarle, Lenoir, and Mt. Airy, where he lived from 1907 until his death. He superannuated in 1909.

When his health somewhat improved he became the pastor-at-large for Mt. Airy and surrounding sections. He was the friend and counsellor of rich and poor, sick and well. As the local paper said, "He was Mt. Airy's pastor and elder brother."

Brother Price was pre-eminently a preacher. As one who sat under his ministry for two years I can say I never heard him preach a poor sermon. He remarked to me once that he had sacrificed everything for simplicity and clearness. Those who heard him knew how well he succeeded in both. His people were constantly surprised at the way in which he made the most profound truths so simple that children could understand. His sermonizing was unique in its methods. Two—never more than three—outstanding truths were selected from every text, and then illustration—usually from experience or common life—humor, logic and emotional appeal were all brought to bear on these truths until they glowed and sparkled like precious stones. To be in the pew with Vance Price in the pulpit was an experience never to be forgotten.

But he was also a great lover of people. The men and women before him were more important to him than his message, or rather the message was important because of them. He believed in democracy and brotherhood and practiced both to a degree noteworthy. The down and out could always tell him their story; the sick and distressed had a friend and his generous hand was open always to the needy. In fact, he gave himself to the need of men. He loved children. The only speech I ever heard him make on the Conference floor was in favor of starting what is now our Children's Home. He said that day: "I can get money for the children."

Many other fine things from the life of this man come crowding to memory, but they would make this paper too long. We pay tribute today to Vance Price—a combination of two great names. Vance Price—a gentleman of rare feeling and a preacher of great force. Vance Price—a friend of man and of God. Vance Price—storm-tossed—"sometimes up and sometimes down," he came out into the clear shining at the close of the day. Vance Price—an intellectual rebel, but a reverent and loving "bond slave" of Jesus Christ. "Enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

Whereunto shall we finally liken him? Turn to Bunyan's great allegory and see "Mr. Valiant-for-Truth." There walks Vance Price, and how true to the close of his life is that famous passage which is headed "Mr. Valiant-for-Truth Crosses the River." "After this was noised abroad that Mr. Valiant-for-Truth was taken with a summons. . . Then said he: I am going to my Father's . . . I give my courage and skill to him that can get it. . . When the day that he must go hence was come, many accompanied him to the River side, into which, as he went, he said: Death, where is thy sting? As he went down deeper he said: Grave, where is thy victory. So he passed over, and the Trumpets sounded for him on the other side."

Brother Price was buried at Mt. Airy among a people devoted to him. The funeral was conducted by Revs. A. C. Gibbs and J. T. Mangum, assisted by Rev. J. L. Ingram, Rev. J. W. McFall, and Rev. C. C. Weaver.

He leaves two daughters—Miss Katherine Price, of Mt. Airy, and Mrs. Roberta Price Lawrence, of Tulsa, Oklahoma, and one grandson, Robert Price Lawrence, and one sister, Miss Annie Laurie Price, of Los Angeles.

DAVID RILEY PROFFITT

David Riley Proffitt, second son of Col. and Mrs. William W. Proffitt, and a nobleman by nature and grace, was born on Bald Creek, Yancey County, N. C., August 12, 1870.

He was converted in boyhood, joined the Methodist Church and lived a conscientious Christian life throughout his years.

After attending the neighborhood schools and studying at Morris Harvey College he was licensed to preach, and for a short while served a pastoral charge in the West Virginia Conference.

Feeling the pull of his native state he returned and joined the Western North Carolina Conference in 1906, in whose fellowship he remained a loyal and useful member until he "fell at his post" Sunday evening, April 19, 1936. On Monday, in the presence of many ministers and friends, the funeral was conducted from Mt. Pleasant Church, Greensboro District, by his presiding elder, Dr. Chas. C. Weaver, assisted by Rev. M. T. Smathers and the writer.

On September 18, 1892, Brother Proffitt was married to Miss Elizabeth Lewis, of Burnsville, who survives him together with their four daughters: Mrs. W. J.

Moore, Asheville; Mrs. Serval Herbert, New York City; Mrs. Glenn Jordon, Greensboro; and Mrs. Minor C. Donnell, Washington, D. C.

As pastor, Brother Proffitt gave thirty and a half faithful years of labor to the following charges, not one of which he could not have served for life to the great joy of his people: Weaverville, 4 years; Swannanoa, 1 year; Weaverville, 1 year; Webster, 4 years; Biltmore, 4 years; East Greensboro, 4 years; Andrews, 1 year; Thomasville, 4 years; Spray, 2 years; Mooresville, 2 years; Erlanger, 2 years; Mt. Pleasant, 1 year and 6 months.

He was a true gospel preacher, inspiring pastor, inspiring example and a fine friend everywhere he lived. He not only loved the Lord and His church, but he was deeply interested in people and zealously endeavored always to do them good. Doubtless with Samuel Rutherford he felt: "Oh, if all these souls about me could meet me at God's right hand, my heaven would be two heavens in Immanuel's land." Brother Proffitt possessed a "meek and quiet spirit" and was never envious, jealous or boastful. He hated sham and cheap parade. He believed in, practiced and preached the great principles of Christian living. While he was witty and full of dry humor, he never wounded, and his language was chaste as his mind was pure. His reverence rebuked sin and inspired in us all a spirit of profound worship. Oh, how he could pray! When he interceded—"Heaven came down our souls to greet and glory crowned the mercy seat."

Not only does his devoted family suffer in his going, but our entire Conference sorely misses him. But we know where he is, and may grace enable us through faith—

"So to forecast the years
And find in loss a gain to match;
To reach a hand through time, and catch
The far off interest of tears."

JOHN BORING TABOR

John Boring Tabor, the son of Jefferson and Sarah Scott Tabor, was born in Tazewell County, Va., May 15th, 1860. His father laid down his life in the cause of the Confederacy, leaving behind him an open Bible which was used by his widow in the training of young Tabor. He was educated in the public schools of his native county and William College. From boyhood he expressed a desire to preach but the definite call did not come till 1881, at the time of his conversion. In 1882 he was licensed to exhort and a year later he was given license to preach. He joined the Holston Conference at Bristol, Tenn., 1884, Bishop Keener, presiding. He was ordained deacon at Knoxville, Tenn., in 1886, by Bishop McTyeire; was ordained elder in Asheville in 1888, by Bishop Hargrove. He served the church for fifty years, never missing a roll call at an Annual, District, or Quarterly Conference. During these 50 years he served 25 charges as follows: in the Holston Conference: Cedar Bluff, 1884-85; Sparta Circuit, 1885-86; Rossville Station, 1886-87; Cleveland Circuit, 1887-89; Bakersville Station, 1889-90; Western North Carolina Conference: Bryson City Station, 1890-91; McAdenville Circuit, 1891-92; Pleasant Garden Circuit, 1892-94; Ruffin Circuit, 1894-97; Greensboro Circuit, 1897-99; Randleman Station, 1899-1901; N. Wilkesboro Circuit, 1901-04; Crouse Circuit, 1904-05; Mt. Holly Circuit, 1905-09; Lewisville Circuit, 1909-11; Farmington Circuit, 1911-14; N. Thomasville Circuit, 1914-16; Table Rock Circuit, 1916-20; Henrietta Station, 1920-22; Burnsville Circuit, 1922-25; Gilkey Circuit, 1925-27; Shepherd Circuit, 1927-28; Hiddenite Circuit, 1928-30; Woodleaf Circuit, 1930-32; Harmony, Concord, 1932-34. In the fall of 1934 he was superannuated at his own request. His characteristic humor and optimism in his farewell address to the Conference remain in our memories and spirits like a heavenly benediction.

He was married to Lillie Templeton of Lincolnton, N. C., November 19th, 1891. God gave to them six children, all of whom he educated and sent out into the world to be of service to humanity. One bears his name and carries on his work in our Conference.

Measured by all the standards of worth of a Methodist itinerant, Rev. J. B. Tabor took first rank among the disciples of Wesley. Both by natural endowments and the grace of God he fitted well into the tasks imposed upon him by the duties of his calling. Had he been living in the days of the founder of Methodism he would have been greatly loved by him. His devotion to the duties of his office, his firm belief in the Bible as the inspired Word of God, his evangelistic fervor, his joy in soul-saving, together with his warm, genial nature, would have made him a congenial co-worker with that organizing genius who has built churches around the globe. By no means the least of the revelations he has made to us brethren, as well as the legacy he has left to us, is the spiritual character of the old-fashioned Methodist circuit rider. He was one of that sort and was glad of it. His ambition never went beyond that. To be a Methodist preacher was all the honor he craved; to be a circuit rider made him famous. It put him in line with Wesley, Asbury, Strawbridge, Jesse Lee, G. W. Ivey and a host of others of whom the world was not worthy.

When he was superannuated he had had fifty years of unbroken service as a minister in the Holston, and then in the Western North Carolina, Conference. Fifty years of continuous service for Christ! Fifty years a hero of the Cross! Trials, and triumphs, sunshine and shadow, but happiness withal.

On May 12th, 1936, after a brief illness, he died of pneumonia in Statesville, N. C. Revs. J. B. Craven, John W. Hoyle, J. S. Hiatt and the writer conducted the funeral service of this good man. He giveth His beloved sleep. His body was buried in the Statesville Cemetery.

SEYMOUR TAYLOR

In the hill country of Wilkes County, North Carolina, Seymour Taylor was born March 23, 1868, and in the early morning of November 13, 1935, he was suddenly called from labor to reward.

In the presence of nearly one hundred ministers and a vast congregation of sorrowing friends his funeral was conducted from Broad Street Church, Mooresville, of which he was the new pastor, by his presiding elder, Rev. John W. Hoyle, Dr. W. W. Peele and the writer.

On June 9, 1897, Brother Taylor was married to Miss Callie Richardson, who survives him together with their four children: Mrs. J. F. Thomas, Mrs. Bennett Lewis, Joseph, and Willard Taylor. In early manhood he was converted and called to preach, but such a staggering sense of responsibility seized him that he did not yield till after several years, spent in the West, when he returned home, was licensed and admitted on trial at Salisbury in 1896. For thirty-nine successive years in this Conference he rendered an outstanding ministry of the constructive and permanent type which has enriched our entire Conference and generation. His charges follow: Healing Springs, 1896-97; Rockford, 1898-1900; Watauga, 1901-03; Yadkinville, 1903; Jefferson, 1904; Wentworth, 1905-07; Derita, 1908-10; Weddington, 1911-14; Marshville, 1915-18; Morven, 1919-22; Concord Circuit, 1923; North Wilkesboro District, 1924-27; Thomasville Circuit, 1928-29; Spray, 1930; Walkertown, 1931; Wilkesboro, 1932-34; and, at the Conference in Salisbury, October, 1935, he was appointed to Broad Street, Mooresville.

As pastor and presiding elder, Brother Taylor sought everywhere to develop the supreme interests of the church and he always adopted the total program. He was a wise administrator and a diligent pastor, but pre-eminently a preacher. In his sermons and addresses he discussed the foundational principles of redemption and the paramount verities of eternity. He wasted no time on trivialities and never cheapened the gospel. The powers of the world to come seemed to anchor him, and the breath of God was in his spirit. He practiced and preached a sane evangelism and a genuine Christian education, for he wanted to edify believers and convert the lost. He hated all kinds of vice and sin, being the inveterate foe of intemperance, gambling, impurity, injustice, irreverence, etc. He despised insincerity, place-seeking, covetousness and all that is unbrotherly in the church. No field was too hard, no congregation too poor, no condition too discouraging for this faithful minister of Christ. To every task assigned him he "gave the last full measure of devotion."

As a man, Brother Taylor "Lived from a great depth of being," for he was a profound thinker, a splendid gentleman, a lofty Christian. He seemed to imbibe the very atmosphere of his beloved mountains, their majesty, ruggedness, and stability crystallizing in his magnificent manhood. However, he was not cold, secretive or diffident, but deeply affectionate, sympathetic, kind and generous. When he "fell on sleep" we who knew him said: "A prince and a great man is fallen this day in Israel," and, as Edwin Markham writes of Lincoln, we can truly say of Seymour Taylor, our beloved brother, co-laborer and friend:

"The color of the ground was in him, the red earth,
The smack and tang of elemental things;
The rectitude and patience of the cliff,
The good will of the rain that loves all leaves,
The friendly welcome of the wayside well,
The courage of the bird that dares the sea,
The gladness of the wind that shakes the corn,
The pity of the snow that hides all scars,
The secrecy of streams that make their way
Under the mountain to the rifted rock,
The tolerance and equity of light
That gives as freely to the shrinking flower
As to the great oak flaring to the wind—
To the grave's low hill as to the Matterhorn
That shoulders out the sky.
And when he fell in the whirlwind, he went down
As when a lordly cedar, green with boughs,
Goes down with a great shout upon the hills
And leaves a lonesome place against the sky."

WALTER HERBERT WILLIS

On the morning of Tuesday, November 26, 1935, the Rev. Walter Herbert Willis, age 67, was found dead on the floor of the living room of his home at Madison. He had returned from a revival meeting near Lincolnton and held his usual Sunday services at Madison. Monday night he met the Workers' Council at the church and was heard to complain only of indigestion and a feeling of depression. No one considered his condition serious; but some time that night, with no human eye to witness, he met his "Pilot face to face." The funeral service was conducted from Broad Street Methodist Church, of Statesville, on Wednesday, November 27, by the Revs. A. C. Gibbs, J. S. Hiatt, and J. W. Hoyle, Jr. Interment was made in the Statesville City Cemetery.

Brother Willis was born April 13, 1868, in Onslow County near Pollocksville, son of Lehmar and Christianna Willis. Fatherless at the age of six, his mother taught him in the county schools until he was ready for the sixth grade. They then moved to New Bern where his mother ran a lodging house for a living. Here young Walter worked in a store after school and in summer earning four dollars per week. Half this amount he turned over to his mother. The industry and frugality of those early years characterized his entire life.

His call to preach was accompanied by a call to attend Trinity College. From that institution he graduated in the class of 1892 near the head of his class. That fall he joined the North Carolina Conference at Goldsboro and was appointed to Plymouth Charge. At the succeeding Conference he transferred to the Western North Carolina Conference and stationed at Thomasville.

He was married to Bernice Bagby at Greensboro on June 21, 1893. To them eight children were born. Brother Willis is survived by his widow and three children: Mrs. Fred Alexander and Theron Willis, of Statesville, and M. B. Willis, of Asheboro.

Out of a ministry of 43 years Brother Willis spent 41 years in the Western North Carolina Conference, serving the following charges: Thomasville, 1894; Riverside, Asheville, 1895; Haywood Street, Asheville, 1896; Hendersonville, 1897; Calvary, Charlotte, 1898-99; Grace, Winston-Salem, 1900-02; Marion Station, 1903-04; Mt. Zion, 1905-07; Waynesville District, 1908-11; Central, Mt. Airy, 1912-15; Lexington, 1916-18; Asheville District, 1919-22; Asheboro, 1923-26; Belmont Park, Charlotte, 1927-30; Norwood, 1931; Spray, 1932-33; Cherryville, 1934; Madison, 1935.

Brother Willis' mental processes were vivid, forceful, and logical. He saw so clearly himself, it was not difficult for him to cause others to see. He often amused himself and others with pencil sketches of friends in action or in characteristic poses. But his humor in word and pictures was ever without a sting. Willis charts and maps became fixtures of Annual Conference halls. His sermons, too, were regarded by many as being forceful and often picturesque. He was never dry in delivery or subject matter.

The weight of increasing years did very little to retard his gait. In work or play he was indefatigable. I heard a fine layman say of him that he could "visit more homes, make more friends, tell more jokes, laugh the heartiest, and play the best game of croquet" of any preacher he had ever known.

Though spending a large part of his ministry under circumstances conducive to loneliness, he was never morose or sad. The sunshine of a joyful faith lighted up all the avenues of his being. He was in the eye of his friends "God's blessed man." Through labors abundant and cares innumerable he came triumphant to the end.

Patronize Your Own PRINTING PLANT

¶ We do not feel that we are asking too much in urging our pastors, churches, schools and all connectional interests to order all their printing from the Advocate.

¶ We are equipped to handle anything from a visiting card to a book as economically and expeditiously as any printshop in the state.

¶ Some of our city's most prominent business institutions are among our best customers; but it is to the great North Carolina Methodist family that the Advocate looks expectantly for its principal patronage.
